CHINESE SHIP ATTACKED

SEVERAL PASSENGERS
LOST OVERBOARD

PANIC DURING SHOOTING

(Special to "Telegraph")

Swatow, May 6.

Four anti-piracy guards aboard the Chinese coastal steamer, Tai Yi, are reported to have been shot dead during a sharp battle with a gang of twelve or thirteen pirates who attacked the vessel near Swatow on Friday evening.

The pirates were travelling as passengers, but failed to effect their coup by surprise and found the guards offering spirited resistance. Sharp-shooting continued for half-an-hour before the guards were shot down or overpowered.

Panic reigned among the passengers during the battle and, in the confusion, it is stated, several of them were crushed to the side of the ship and accidentally thrust overboard and drowned.

LARGE HAUL.

The pirates having gained control of the bridge directed the ship to a small bay near Bias Bay where their booty, obtained after stripping the passengers and crew of all their belongings, was taken ashore. It is understood that the haul exceeded $10,000 in value, including over $4,000 in money.

The pirated steamer, which plies between Huang Klang and Swatow, arrived in Swatow on Saturday evening, reporting the events in the audacious raid to the local authorities.—Central News.

Will Insull "Spill the Beans"

SPEEDY TRIAL DEMANDED

SENSATIONAL STORY POSSIBLE

(Special to "Telegraph")

Chicago, May 6.
It is learned that the District Attorney, who has charge of the case against Mr. Samuel Insull, intends to demand an early trial of the fallen utilities magnate.

Mr. Samuel Insull is expected to arrive in the United States in the middle of this week.
It is rumored that the trial may produce some sensational evidence and that hosts of other people may become involved if Mr. Insull elects to tell the whole story of the colossal losses suffered by the great combine over which he exercised control.

It is rumored that he intends to break the silence which he has hitherto imposed upon himself and may "bust things wide," perhaps involving some of America's best known business men.—United Press.

AMERICA'S ECONOMIC PLIGHT

REMEDIES

"MONEY MUDDLE"

New York, May 6.

The adoption by the United States of a gold bullion standard instead of a gold coin standard is advocated in a new book by Professor Warburg.

The book is entitled "The Money Muddle," and deals comprehensively with America's economic plight.
Regarding America's fiscal policy, the author recommends a middle course between complete economic nationalism and internationalism.

He says that silver advocates want cheaper money, in which case there is no reason why it should stop at silver. They might just as well clamour for iron, or tin, or just plain paper.

Professor Warburg, it will be recalled, was one of the principal economic advisers to the American delegation to the World Economic Conference.—Reuter.

CHINA STATION ROMANCE

DAME SYBIL THORNDIKE'S PLANS

MAY ATTEND WEDDING OF SON

Dame Sybil Thorndike may come to Hongkong and China to attend the wedding of her son, Lieutenant John Casson, of H.M.S. Eagle, and Miss Patricia Chester-Master.

The engagement of the young couple was announced in "the Colony" at the beginning of April.

In a later interview, Dame Sybil Thorndike said she was very, very happy about her son's romance which came as no surprise to her or her husband.

"It has always been my ambition to go to China—I have always longed to see the Great Wall. Now I shall certainly do everything I can to arrange it. Anyway, I am determined to be there for the wedding, and so is Mr. Casson."

"They are very young yet, and I expect they will wait at least a year before they get married."

SILVER EXPERT IN COLONY

MEETING BANKERS AT TIFFIN

Professor Rogers, the American silver expert, who is engaged upon an official mission of investigation at the request of President Roosevelt, arrived in the Colony last evening from Canton.

He told a Telegraph representative this morning that he could not grant any interviews concerning his study of the silver question in China.

A tiffin party is being held at the Hongkong Hotel to-day at which Professor Rogers will meet a number of local banking men.

BRITAIN'S FUTURE MAMMOTH OF THE SEAS. How the new Cunarder, which is to be launched at the end of September, will look when completed. The vessel will be 1,018 feet long and of 73,000 tons gross. She will probably be also the fastest liner on the high seas.

QUEEN TO CHRISTEN NEW CUNARDER

LAUNCH AT END OF SEPTEMBER

(Special to "Telegraph")

London, May 7.
It is officially announced that Her Majesty the Queen will perform the christening ceremony at the launching of the new giant Cunarder, now known as No. 534.

Britain's determination to concentrate world attention upon the super-liner is believed to have influenced the decision to ask Her Majesty to perform the ceremony.
It is indicated that the vessel will be ready for launching from Messrs. John Brown's yard at the end of September and that Her Majesty the Queen will witness the launch.

It is interesting to note that this will be the first ship christened by Queen Mary since the Coronation. It is understood that the vessel is to be called "Britannia".—United Press.

KNOCKED DOWN BY CYCLISTS

TWO CASES REPORTED YESTERDAY

Two cases were reported to the police yesterday, of pedestrians having been knocked down and injured by push-bicyclists.

The first case which occurred in Bulkeley Street, Kowloon, concerned a woman, Chan Chan-po, who, after the accident, was sent to the Kowloon Hospital for treatment for minor injuries.

In the other accident, a man, Chan Lim, was injured about the legs through being run into unexpectedly from behind, in Wan-chai, and was also sent to hospital.

ITALIAN NAVAL BUILDING

SIGNOR MUSSOLINI CHANGES MIND

Rome, May 6.
An official gazette states that there has been a readjustment of the Budget whereby 480,000,000 lire will now be provided for the building of more warships.

Signor Mussolini originally decided to suspend any further building as an Italian gesture to the cause of preventing an armaments race.—Reuter.

BRITISH CONSUL MARRIED

Mr. Burdett Wedded At Home

London, May 7.
Mr. Scott L. Burdett, of the British Consular Service in China, was married yesterday to Miss Eileen Workman, at Northwood, Middlesex. They are leaving for China in the autumn.—Reuter.

Acute Distress In Colony

URGENT APPEAL FOR FUNDS

The Women's Auxiliary of the Hongkong Society for the Protection of Children has issued the following appeal:

Funds are urgently needed to enable the Society to continue its work. The excess of expenditure over income during the first five months of the present financial year was $4,223.31. During this period (November 1st to March 31st) the Society has dealt with 364 new cases.

FINE WORK.

Its work is almost entirely among the poorest of the poor and it has, during the past five months, obtained medical treatment in 172 new cases which have come under the care of its branches, and provided food in 259 fresh cases of sick or starving children.

Amongst other activities the Society is contributing towards the maintenance of fourteen destitute children whom it has placed in institutions, and has obtained hawker's licences and stock for fifteen parents who could not otherwise be able to make a living.

One of the Society's four Inspectors attends as a nurse at the Children's Clinic at Sham-Shui-Po, towards the support of which the Society regularly contributes medical supplies and dietary articles. From its funds, the Society makes an annual grant to the Salvation Army Home at Matau-wei.

Donations will be gratefully received by the two Hon. Treasurers—Mrs. L. W. Amps, 517, The Peak; and Mrs. Y. K. Chow, c/o Sir Shouson Chow, Chinese Merchants' Club, China Building, Queen's Road.

In celebration of the 24th anniversary of the succession of H.M. King George V. to the Throne, salutes of 21 guns were fired from H.M.S. Tamar and H.M.S. Caradoc at noon to-day by the Naval authorities, and at the same time the Army marked the occasion by a similar salute from Blackhead Fort. His Majesty succeeded to the Throne on May 6, 1910, but as yesterday was a Sunday, the salutes were held over until to-day.

NAZI ACTIVITY IN SAAR

THOUSANDS CROSS THE BORDER

SPEECH BY DR. GOEBBELS

(Special to "Telegraph")

Paris, May 6.
German activity directed towards ensuring a favourable pro-German vote during the Saar plebiscite is increasing.

It is reported that eighty thousand people crossed the Saar frontier into Germany this afternoon to demonstrate their intention to vote for the return of the Saar to Germany next year, when the Saar plebiscite is due to be held.

Herr Goebbels, the German Minister of Propaganda, addressing the crowd at Zweibrücken, Bavaria, declared, amid cheers, that the Saar would remain German despite terrorism and trickery.

At the end of his speech a blonde girl presented Herr Goebbels with a bowl of earth from the Saar.

FRENCH VERSION.

According to the version of Goebbels' speech which is published in Paris, the German Minister declared that Germany could now resist France and the League of Nations come what might.

He denounced the German emigrants, Jews and traitors, who had taken refuge in Saar Territory and said that when the Saar was reunited with Germany, they would be beaten up by their co-religionists.

A leader of the "German Front" stated that he had informed the League that 93 per cent. of the Saar electorate was pro-German.—Reuter Special.

RAILWAY STATIONS BOMBED

Austrian Terrorist Acts Continue

Vienna, May 7.

Acts of terrorism continue in different parts of Austria, keeping the authorities continuously active.

Bombs were exploded yesterday at two railway stations, considerable damage being done to both buildings.
The perpetrators are believed to have been Nazi terrorists.—Reuter.

GERMAN PROTEST TO LATVIA

Socialist Defamation of Herr Hitler

Riga, May 6.

The German Minister to Latvia has formally protested to the Latvian Government against defamation of Herr Hitler by Socialists during the May Day festivities.

It is alleged that the Socialists staged a demonstration in which an effigy of Hitler beheading a victim with a huge axe figured prominently.—Reuter.

WAR DEBTS RULING

PRESIDENT FREE TO ACT?

VERDICT AFFORDS RELIEF

Washington, May 6.

The ruling of the Attorney-General that Great Britain, and other countries who have made token payments to the United States, are not to be classified among defaulters under the Johnson-Bill has given much relief in official circles.

As the result of Mr. Cummings' ruling, President Roosevelt apparently can deal as he sees fit with the question of the payments by defaulters, whose obligations mature again in June and December.

Although the ruling does not commit the Administration to any specific policy regarding future token payments, it is considered highly probable that the entire debt question will be submitted to the next Congress.—United Press.

SOVIET MINING DISASTER

SIX PROMINENT ENGINEERS KILLED

Moscow, May 6.

Six of Russia's most important engineers were among those who perished in a mining disaster in the Krivirog Basin.

A portion of the mine caved in during experiments which were directed towards achieving increases in production. Many of those engaged in the experiments were buried and were dead when dug out.

WHOLE FAMILY DEAD

WIDOW & THREE CHILDREN

(Special to "Telegraph")

Shanghai, May 7.

A terrible tragedy was discovered in the International Settlement on Saturday, when the four members of the family of the late Mr. Chin Li-chai was found dead from narcotic poisoning.

The victims were the widow, her two sons and daughter.

The circumstances are difficult to reconstruct, but it is believed that the widow and her younger son were the first to die, and that her elder son and daughter, returning to the house to find their mother dead, themselves took poison.

EDITOR'S WIDOW.

The late Mr. Chin Li-chai was editor of one of the leading vernacular newspapers, the Sin Po, until his death, after a long illness, in February.

His wife was grief-stricken and further worried by the condition of her younger son, who was suffering from tuberculosis. It is believed that, during a temporary fit of insanity, she poisoned him and then took a fatal dose herself.—Central News.

SILVERITES STILL HOPEFUL

CONFERENCE BEING HELD TO-DAY

New York, May 6.

After a preliminary conference with the President, Senator King predicted that silver legislation will be enacted this session. There will be a further conference on Monday.

The publication of the above came too late to affect the market.—Per Spear, Culbertson & Fritz.

TRAIN WRECKED

BANDITS PILLAGE C.E.R. FREIGHT

Harbin, May 6.

Bandits pulled up a section of track thirteen miles east of Imlenpo on the Chinese Eastern Railway and wrecked a westbound freight train.

Immediately after the derailment, the bandits opened a hot fire upon the crew and guards and, when they had been subdued, pillaged the train.

So far the casualties are not known.—Reuter.

MEET THE GIRL MEN WANT TO KISS

She knows how to Accentuate Natural Loveliness

HER lips are neither a streak of paint nor a faded line. Instead, she accentuates her mouth with a lipstick that gives the natural youthful glow that men admire without that painted look. Only Tangee can do this because only Tangee contains the magic color-change principle that makes it intensely natural coloring.

LOOKS ORANGE—ACTS ROSE

In the sick Tangee looks orange. But put it on and notice how it changes to your natural shade of rose! It becomes a very part of you, instead of a greasy coating, hence is longer-lasting than ordinary "paint" lipstick.

Tangee's special cream base soothes and softens lips. No drying, no cracking, no chapping. Also in Theatrical, a deeper shade for professional use.

UNTOUCHED—Lips left untouched are apt to have a faded look, make the face seem older.

PAINTED—Don't risk that painted look. It's coarsening and men don't like it.

TANGEE—Intensifies natural color, restores youthful appeal, ends that painted look.

TANGEE ROUGE COMPACT changes to the one shade most natural for you! Apply to your cheeks and see how beautifully it brightens your natural coloring. A perfect match for Tangee Lipstick! Also in Theatrical.

UTTERLY FEMININE, THESE SPRING FROCKS

Taffetas Back for Wear on All Occasions, Also the Lovely Lingerie Touches—Clever Designing Makes Peplum Dresses Appear as Two-Piece Costumes

The coat dress (left) of rough black crepe has a ruffled draped white jabot and a matching panelled skirt inset that flares gracefully as you walk.

The two-piece dress (below) of grayish mohair has a plain vestee of white pique and matching bands around sleeves and neckline. This model is handsome in taffeta, too.

Crisp and fresh as a spring morning is the brown and white printed frock (right) of gossamer sheer silk. Brown organza sheer collar and deep cuffs add the fashionable feminine touch.

This Spring dress (right) of heavy silk crepe epitomizes three important Spring fashion notes—It's navy blue, has a short jacket and a flattering lingerie touch at the neckline. The skirt is straight and form-fitting with one smart kick pleat in the centre of the front. The straw hat, a variation of the popular sailor, has a medium brim and is trimmed with a shining white grosgrain ribbon band. White gloves, navy purse and shoes are other "just right" accessories.

New York.—Spring dresses are as feminine as lavender and old lace. The 1934 girl in her new spring frock has almost as little chance of being mistaken for a 1925 flapper as—well, as Queen Victoria herself.

Speaking of the great queen, a fabric of her own era has rustled into the fashion picture. Taffeta is back, not only for tea, dinner and evening, but for street and general daytime wear, office included.

And the lingerie neckline dresses! Nothing more feminine than these—wait until you see a tunic crepe frock with an organdie jabot, or a navy blue with wisps of organza or net at throat and wrists. The lingerie touches really make these frocks. And smarter than ever this year. The light sweet little printed frocks are topped by unlined, lightweight woolen coats which don't quite close in front, allowing the dresses to be seen.

Things look like what they show. The windblown theme is prevalent in this category. Rip shears, no doubt. You see what pling revers, collars that blow forward, a two-piece dress, ward, jabots of self material that appear to be a two-piece dress. You know that two-piece frock fly out over coats' lapels—all these are fashionable, so you think no style points make redingotes more about it. But, suddenly, flatteringly as a tunic dress on a peplum has made your eyes. Tunic are headlines, too. It printed silk or white pique, it's deceiving you. Sure enough, it's may be due to the Russian influence. A peplum dress which looks two-fluence or to the fact that women piece. The same thing happens know how slenderizing they can when you think you see a redin-be. But, whatever the reason, string, greige, not to mention the pastels.

It may be that, but it's they're right in vogue, especially the never pleated types. Spring dress colors are as varied as they are handsome. All the pink shades from palest pastel to deep, rich rose tones are used. And then there are greens which borrow from nature herself—leaf greens, grass green and the green of ocean waves on a sunny day—they're luscious!

Blue, of course, is in the limelight. Was there ever a spring when it wasn't a good choice? Navy, medium blue, lighter shades, including hyacinth—take your pick! And don't forget about black. But, then, how could you? Trimmed with touches of vivid flatteringly to nearly everyone. Neutral colours are important. You'll see plenty of grey, beige, off-shade tones, including dusty causes of sagging chin-muscles.

GLORIFYING YOURSELF.

Correct Posture Rids Sagging Chins

By Alicia Hart.

Poor posture is one of the chief causes of sagging chin-muscles.

Stand in front of a mirror with head and chest up, chin in but not forced downward or strained. The mirror will tell you whether or not you look graceful and if chin muscles are being held up. Try to maintain that position whether you are standing, sitting or walking. If you're uncomfortable, the chances are that you aren't standing correctly. You should be perfectly easy and relaxed.

It is better to sleep without a pillow. If you can't get along without one, get a tiny baby pillow which doesn't prop you up to an almost sitting position, putting a strain on the back of your neck and forcing the head down on the chest, crowding chin muscles. It may be a little difficult for the first few nights, but you'll get used to the idea and find that your sleep is more beneficial.

CHAPTER XL

The Noyes case absorbed Marcia Treadway. She knew that Pablo had lived with Noyes and now, of course, Noyes would step out of hiding to claim the fortune that was his. He could, no doubt, tell her where to find Pablo. Once she found the youth, Marcia had resolved that she would tell the truth and free him from the old charges.

No longer did Marcia dream of making Pablo dependent on her—of trips to France and Spain and Italy. She wanted instead to say, "This is the truth I owe you and must tell to set my mind at rest."

Her maid found her surprisingly kind these days. Marcia no longer became harsh at the slightest interference, with her will. "Ah, well," she thought, smiling, "I've travelled a long way." She thought too of those years during which she had planned to shield Pablo and herself. She now knew that she could shield him only by the truth and that with the truth she must tear from herself the protection that sheltered her from the world's scorn.

The Noyes case filled long columns in the newspapers. There were many stories about Josie Martell who had danced and acted with so much charm and grace. "Another Maude Adams," she had been called. Staid middle-aged men smiled, reading this column, and then sighed a little sadly. A look over the shoulder is likely to cause a sag, while a look ahead makes the muscles tense. And in middle age one does not look ahead so easily as one looks behind.

Norris Noyes' wife had confessed that she killed Josie Martell. In the midst of the confession she had lost consciousness and had been revived by drastic measures. Then, gasping and holding off the chill finger of death by sheer will power, she finished what she had to say—the story she had kept secret since the night her husband had taken a revolver from her hands to say, "Go!"

Mrs. Noyes had been jealous, she confessed. Her jealousy had grown until it completely overpowered her; she knew no other emotion. She had followed her husband one night to Josie Martell's home which was well up town. A maid had admitted her and she saw the maid disappear into the rear of the house. Then from the hall she listened to voices in the next room—Josie Martell's voice and Noyes'. They were talking of pictures and of artists and they said nothing that could possibly offend Mrs. Noyes. She went into the room then and Josie Martell arose to make her welcome. But Mrs. Noyes did not sit down. She stood in the doorway, smiling. Then she raised one hand, holding the small Spanish revolver that she always kept in her dressing table drawer. She fired.

When she next knew anything beyond her husband's swift, urgently voiced, "Go!" she was on her way home. She let herself in with her key. The testimony of Josie Martell's maid that a woman had called that night to see her mistress was dismissed as unimportant after Noyes' disappearance had been interpreted as a confession.

Mrs. Noyes had had one letter from her husband after that. He wrote her that he had never been faithful to her physically. His interest in Miles Martell had been no more than a friendship based on mutual interests. Nevertheless he was guilty, Noyes said, because he had led his wife into loving him and later ceased to care for her. He also wrote that he was not coming back, that she must rear their son as best she could and with the realization that the crime was his, not hers. Between them they had killed one of the best women who ever lived.

Mrs. Noyes' confession, delivered between deep gasps, was complete. Perhaps it was a relief at last to speak. Beyond doing justice to her husband and delivering the money to him that was his—if he could be found—the confession made little difference. The son whose rearing had been left to his mother was one of those reported "missing" in France. Perhaps the boy had been urged to a too-gallant duty by thoughts of a father who had killed a woman and run away.

Thus are the patterns of life woven.

At the same time there was also much space in the newspapers devoted to accounts of Jim Field's spectacular financial crash. There had been a drop in the market that took him under, leaving him completely at the mercy of men whom he had betrayed. These men—settling on the little that was left—bent their red, rough necks to pick the bones, as their feathers grew sleek and shiny.

Estelle's pictures were printed widely, one of them bearing the caption, "Deserted By Lover After Father's Failure."

Before leaving for Havana Estelle had learned of the crash. She had received a letter from Alec Davids the morning of their departure. Alec wrote, as cruelly as possible, that their engagement must be at an end. He said that he knew she had never cared for him. He had not cared for her either until he had determined to show her who was master. Then somehow he had learned a blend of love and hatred—a wish to love her as he dreamed of loving her and a wish to hurt her as men rarely dream of hurting women.

"Of course," his mother had drawled, watching him write the note, "it is quite impossible now. And after all, dear—!" The words ended with a raise of pudgy shoulders.

"Oh, surely!" Alec agreed languidly.

It was like Estelle to pull him into a mess like this, he thought. To make him love her and hate her and then leave him unable to fulfil the feat of his morbid and cruel fancies. Yes, it was like her. He hoped she would suffer as she never had—as few women had!

Marcia came down to the pier to see the Fields off. The place was thick with a salt tang that had been carried into the big barn-like structure by the fog of the gray day.

"You're lucky to be out of this, you two!" she said, pulling her fur coat closely around her throat. "I wish I were leaving with you!"

She had decided it would be kinder to act as though nothing whatever had happened.

"Better come along!" Field invited with a weak echo of his old hospitality.

"I'd love to but, unfortunately I have an important luncheon engagement. It's with a young man who writes poems to me and all that kind of thing. Estelle, you're rather lightly dressed, aren't you? It's such a fearful day. The jonquils in the florists' windows are positively insulting, aren't they?"

Suddenly she became silent and slipped her arm through Jim Field's. He was surprised at her touch. Marcia was reputed to be a "cool one." She had always had that reputation except at that one time when she was said to have cared for Ted Jeffries.

"Jim," she went on quickly, "I have a story to tell you. It's far too wild for this child's ears. Come along down here a little way and I'll narrate the naughty thing."

He walked with her, disinterestedly. Field had felt numb ever since the first threat of his loss had come to him with a drop of stock he had thought to be untouchable.

"I had a funny feeling just then," Marcia confessed when Estelle was out of hearing. "Odd, isn't it, how we Americans use the word 'funny' in the wrong sense so often?"

"Yes," Field agreed. He wondered why she was sparring.

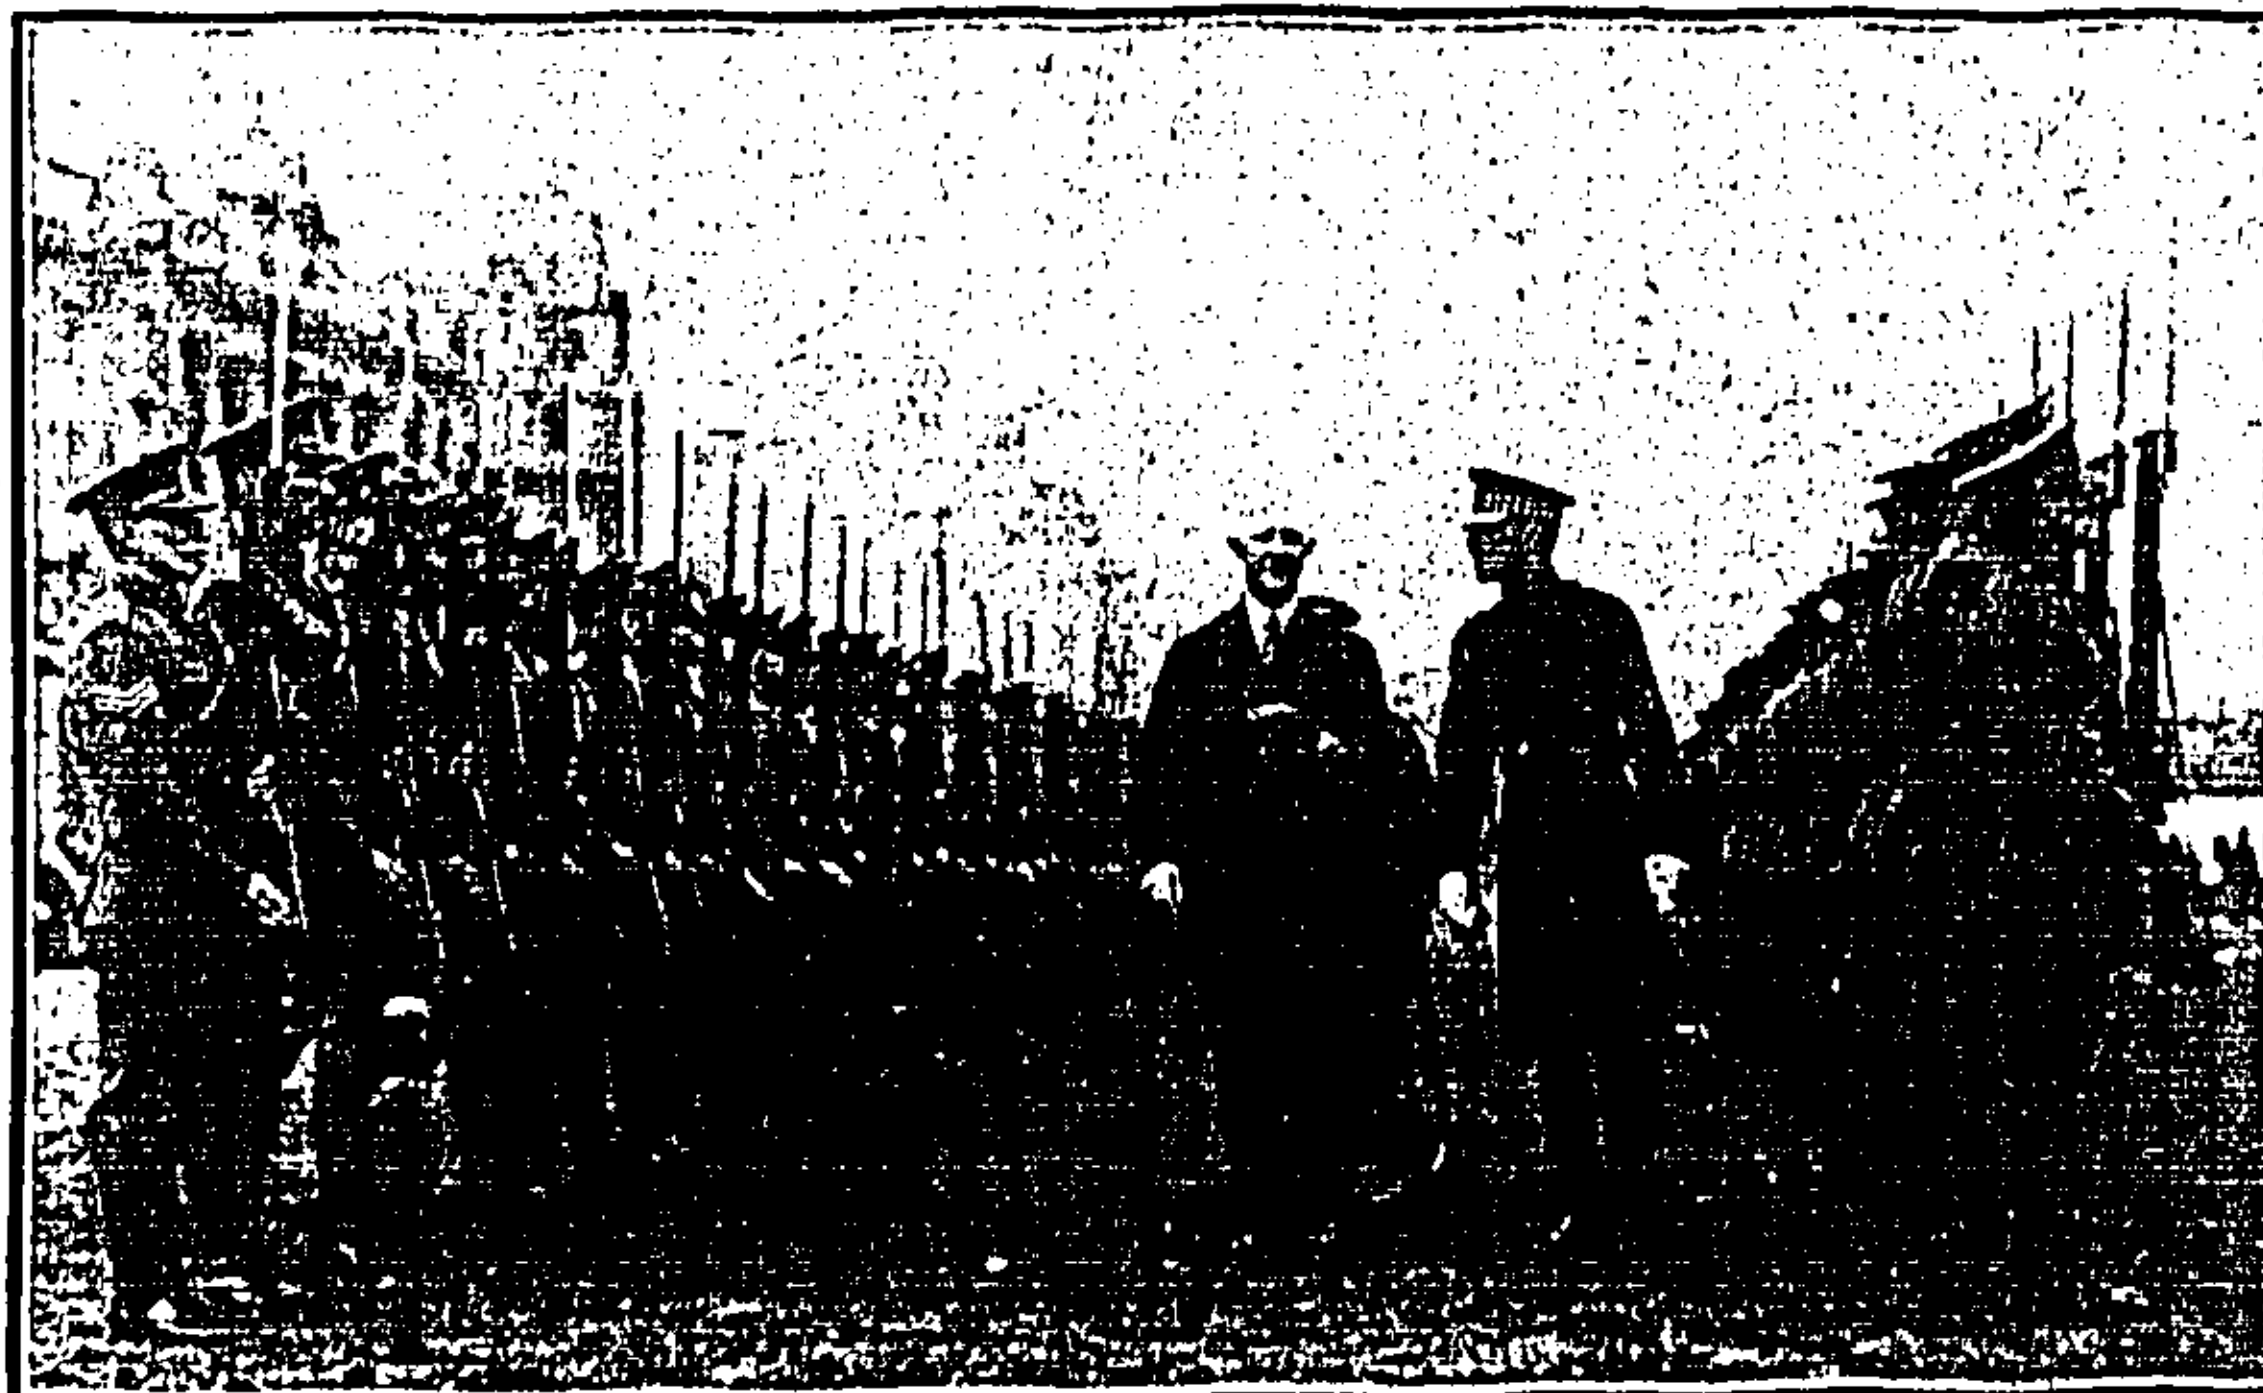

"Well," she went on, "I had this odd sensation because I realized I have never asked you about someone of whom I want very much to hear. You know a good many things—too many, you know—and you might know this. If you do, you must tell me. You must—"

"What is it?" he asked shortly. "Do you know what's become of that boy who used to work for you—the one named Pablo?"

"What makes you ask?"

"I want to know, Jim. It's important!"

(To Be Continued.)

AMBULANCE DAY
SATURDAY

Over $6,000 resulted from the annual flag day of the St. John Ambulance Brigade held on Saturday, an increase of over $400 on the collection for last year.

This exceptionally gratifying result is due in no small measure to the beneficence of Mr. Kwok Hin-wang, who donated $1,000. Of the aggregate acknowledged, $1,340.87 was collected in Kowloon, and when all the boxes have come in it is expected that the total will be close on $7,000.

From early morning St. John Nurses, Cadets and members of King's College Present Boys, Chinese Athletic Divisions and volunteer helpers were seen everywhere with their baskets of flags and flowers, and up to 6.30 p.m. $6,000 had been collected.

The highest single collection was that of Miss Dorothy Withell with $107.10. One box contained $32.60 in ten cent and five cent pieces, a tribute to the hard work of the flag seller.

At a tiffin party at the Hongkong Club $20 were collected. The Commissioner and members of the Brigade are extremely grateful to the following ladies, although who, non-members, helped the cause of St. John by standing many hours in the heat of the morning disposing of emblems.

Donations.

The Brigade acknowledges the following individual donations: Mr. Ho Kom-long, $200; Hon. Mr. and Mrs. E. Taylor, $100; Mr. Fung Kong-un, $50; Tiffin party at the H.K. Club, $25; Mr. Lo Yuk-lun, $10.

WORLD ARMING

ITALY TO BUILD MORE
WARSHIPS

Rome, May 6. A supplementary appropriation of 480,000,000 lire for new naval construction has been authorised by a Decree, appearing in the Official Gazette on Saturday night. The Decree will become effective immediately.

The new appropriation has been allotted over five Budgets, beginning in 1935.—United Press.

Blow to Disarmament.

Geneva, May 6. Disarmament Conference officials here have received the news of the new Italian naval appropriation with consternation, because of its expected repercussions on the 1934 Naval Conference. The officials are of the opinion that the Italian appropriation may have an important influence on the decisions which must be reached before the resumption of the Disarmament Conference, the programme of which has not yet been arranged.—United Press.

American Appeal

Washington, May 6. A warning of the danger of militarism, which is sweeping many parts of the world and might lead to war unless it is curbed by international co-operation to promote peace, understanding and friendship, was uttered to-day by the Secretary of State, Mr. Cordell Hull, when addressing his fellow Alumni at Cumberland University.

Mr. Hull said that numerous nations to-day were feverishly arming and over-taxing their citizens, and, in many ways, developing the military spirit.

While there were no signs of immediate war anywhere, he seriously considered that volcanic conditions existed in many parts. It would be both a blunder and a crime if the civilized peoples failed much longer to notice the present dangerous tendencies.

Mr. Hull was himself not discouraged by the present militaristic trend, for he felt certain that people everywhere would quickly awake to the necessity of returning to the fundamental truths.

The United States, he said, could render valuable service in this connection, and she would continue, as in recent months, to offer wise, sound and efficient leadership, with suitable programmes for political, economic,

BRUTAL ATTACK

STAGE STAR BLINDED IN SHANGHAI

Shanghai, May 6. The idol of the Chinese stage in South China, and well known as a cinema star in Shanghai, Mr. Sit Kok-sin was the victim of a most brutal attack by an unknown assailant, when he was about to enter the Hongkong Theatre on Friday evening to fulfill an engagement on the stage.

Passing a big crowd of spectators waiting to purchase their tickets outside the theatre, Sit Kok-sin was suddenly seized by an assailant, who wiped a large handful of lime and glass in powder form across both his eyes.

The famous actor was terrified and shouted for assistance. The assailant disappeared during the disorder.

When taken to the nearest hospital, it was found that the actors' both eyes were in a serious condition. One may be incurable, according to a report.

The cause of this audacious attack is a complete mystery. It is believed that Mr. Sit Kok-sin and his wife were visiting Shanghai to fulfill a contract to produce a talkie for a Chinese company.

Mr. and Mrs. Sit Kok-sin's recent talkie production was "Pak Kam Lung," which, when screened in Hongkong and Canton, obtained enormous profit.

America's Air Force.

Washington, May 5.

As part of the three-year aviation programme, the United States War Office announces that it will shortly invite tenders for 80 bombing planes and 30 attacking planes, at a cost of U.S. $7,500,000. Further tenders will be invited before July.—Reuter.

Fleet Manoeuvres.

Colon, May 6. The United States Fleet sailed from here to-day for Guantanamo.—United Press.

Airship Participating.

Miami, May 6. The United States Navy's dirigible Macon to-day departed from here for Guantanamo, on manoeuvres.—United Press.

WAR DEBT ISSUE

BRITAIN NOT A DEFAULTER

Washington, May 4. President Roosevelt said to-day that Mr. Homer S. Cummings, the Attorney-General, is expected shortly to give a ruling on the point whether the Johnson Bill, discriminating against debt defaulters, applies to nations offering token payments.

He expects to send a War Debt Message to Congress within a fortnight or three weeks. Observers are of the belief that the President will merely report on the debt status rather than make a request for permission to negotiate new settlements.—United Press.

The Ruling.

Washington, May 5. The United States Attorney-General, Mr. Homer S. Cummings, to-day ruled that Britain, by virtue of her token War Debt payments, was not a defaulter under the Johnson Act.

The Act excludes nations defaulting in their War Debt payments from American credit markets.—Reuter.

Russia A Defaulter.

A United Press message states that, according to the Attorney-General's ruling, Britain, Italy, Czechoslovakia, Latvia and Lithuania are not defaulters under the Johnson Bill, because they have made token payments acknowledging their debts; but Russia is a defaulter because she has not paid the debts her previous governments owed the United States. Other nations are not mentioned.

SPURIOUS MONEY

HUGE RING DISCOVERED IN AMERICA

Chicago, May 5. The conviction to-day of Doctor Valentine Burton, ex-representative in New York of the Amorg (Soviet) Trading Company, on the charge of disposing of $100,000 worth of counterfeit money, is expected to have important consequences.

With the conviction, the Federal authorities believe they have partially succeeded in breaking up a huge international ring dealing in counterfeit money.

In the Burton case, it was disclosed that the spurious bills were printed in Berlin. They were

WORLD LABOUR

It is sometimes stated that the work of the International Labour Organisation of the League of Nations is a farce; that its conventions on industrial conditions, though ratified by many countries, remain a dead letter. This is far from the truth. The American "observer" who went officially to last year's International Labour Conference at Geneva, were so impressed by what they chose to call the "policing" work that they remark in the report which they have rendered to the Senate that the work is effectively and frankly done and offers an example of effective international co-operation. They also go on to recommend that the United States should become a member of the Organisation at the earliest possible moment. In the meantime the custom of sending official observers to Conference should be continued. This "policing" work is carried out in the main by a special committee. Under the terms of the Treaty of Versailles, by which the International Labour Organisation was set up, each country that ratifies an International Labour Convention has to make an annual report on the way in which it is working in that country. These reports are gone through point by point and questions are asked if there is any doubt in the minds of the members of the Committee. Having sorted out the points on which further information is needed, they send up their comments to the Conference itself which meets a few weeks afterwards—this year in June. The Conference then decides what is to be done. In point of fact, the publicity which is given to shortcomings and the quite natural dislike of nations being shown up in bad administration has succeeded hitherto in preventing any more drastic steps being taken. The Peace Treaty does, in fact, lay down a complete procedure to be adopted against a country that defaults on its obligations. It culminates in the application of "economic measures"—which are carefully left undefined. But it is generally understood that such measures would approximate to those which are envisaged under Article 16 of the Covenant of the League of Nations which lays down what is to be done to a country that goes to war in defiance of the League. The

NOTES OF THE DAY

DEBTS AND TARIFFS

Anyone who expected to see Congress take the disappearance of war debts lying down, without a murmur or a gesture, does not know his Congress. The fact that European countries are not making any provisions in their new budgets for debt payments and that the American budget does not even pretend to list debt payments as expected income, have not gone unnoticed by the legislators on Capitol Hill. And so far were they from letting the matter slide that the Johnson Bill lumping all together, those who made token payments and those who did not, as defaulters to be placed upon a financial black list, secured an easy passage. In addition, Senator Borah persistently resists every proposal to give President Roosevelt power to negotiate reciprocal tariff agreements with European and other countries, declaring that war debts and not tariff cuts by America should be America's first counters in any bargaining.

TRANSFER RIDDLE

The first trouble with the Borah plan is that it is difficult to make the war debts count. It may be that the debtors are willing to exchange something valuable in the way of open markets for the claims which the United States holds against them. But if Congress is to be realistic about the debts—and the make-them-pay chorus has always insisted on realism—it might as well recognise that five cents on the dollar is the present value. And even assuming that to induce the United States to reduce or clear the slate of debts which are already in default, certain European countries were willing to admit American goods—would not the difficulty of making the transfer payment remain? If the debtors cannot now make transfers to pay their debts, what good will it do to increase their debts? That is the second trouble with this plan. It was the difficulty when President Hoover proposed it in his 1932 campaign speech at Des Moines, and it is still the difficulty.

ROOSEVELT PLAN

In addition to the war debts, the United States has sent to Europe since the war about $10,000,000,000 worth of goods which have not been paid for. This sum is usually referred to as loans, but it is goods rather than money which actually crossed the water. What is to be gained now by prying holes in European tariff walls so that more goods can be deposited on the eastern shores of the Atlantic unless provision is made for transferring—and accepting—payment? That is the key to the Roosevelt plan. For it is based on reciprocal agreements by which tariff barriers would be lowered in order to accept payment for exports. It would leave the question of debts in abeyance. That may not be necessary. If the debtors really wish to pay they may find ways to get around the transfer difficulty, real as it is. For instance, France could afford to ship some gold and Britain could pay something with American securities held in Britain. But at this late day such efforts are unlikely; the debts have drifted until to-day, with reparations receipts lost to Britain and France, Britain still remembers the famous Balfour Note and disinclination to pay is just as great as inability.

WRONG GESTURE

The United States might facilitate debt collection by lowering tariffs and more freely admitting debtors' goods; she cannot get herself paid by inducing debtors to lower their barriers and accept more of her goods. That would be not merely a gesture but a gesture in the wrong direction.

GANGSTER BRAINS

Most newspaper readers, probably, would like to know more about Fred Goetz, the gangster who was "taken for a ride" recently after several years of activity as one of Chicago's worst gunmen. Goetz did not come from one of those slum regions that breed most criminals. He was a man of a good family, college graduate, an honour student at a great university, and an athlete of considerable prominence. All in all, he was emphatically not the kind of material of which gangsters are made. Yet he plunged into the underworld, became a hired killer, served as a counsellor to the notorious Fred Burke—and died at last, gangland-style, in a ditch full of bullets. A strange and tragic story must lie behind it.

"sanctions" as they are called, include the severance of all trade or financial, commercial or personal intercourse. In other words, complete isolation, which, since no State is or can be completely independent of its neighbours, should, if enforced, have the desired effect.

"WALKING DYNAMITE" WARNS AMERICA

By WILLIAM PHILIP SIMMS

Uncle Sam's proclivity to play the "bully" in the Pacific, and the tendency of the United States, Russia and China to interplay, are imperilling peace of the Far East.

Such, in a paragraph, is the theme of one of the most outspoken utterances yet made by Ito Hirobumi, Japanese foreign minister, in his frank speech as Japan's chief delegate to Geneva during the Manchurian "war," earned for himself the picturesque sobriquet of "walking dynamite."

"I am afraid," he told me in the course of an evening at his handsome foreign-style home here, "that there are misunderstandings on both sides of the Pacific. Let me speak frankly."

"On our side, Japan is irritated over America's insistence on playing the big boy's part in the East. At least, so it appears to us. We refuse to be bullied and resent any attempt at it."

WANTS RESPECT IN TURN.

"We have consistently respected your rights and interests in your sphere of influence and never once challenged the Monroe Doctrine. I want to ask you to respect Japan's Monroe Doctrine of the East."

"When I say Monroe Doctrine, I refer to the doctrine as expounded by Mr. Hughes and Mr. Kellogg, two of your former secretaries of state, who gave us to understand that the Monroe Doctrine, in the final analysis, rests upon the right of self-defence."

"Should America recognize and respect Japan's Monroe Doctrine of the East, many misgivings on our part will disappear."

"I trust America's aim is peace on the Pacific. But your thesis of peace forbids Japan even a sporting chance in fighting America."

"You propose to police the vast Pacific ocean by yourselves. At least that is our impression."

CITES PERIL TO PEACE.

"No powerful and self-respecting nation, however, would ever consent to be bound hand and foot by others. Just reverse the case: Would America allow herself to be so bound by Japan? I know the answer would be a definite 'No.' America tries to impose upon us an inferior naval ratio and Japan resists it. Herein lurks a danger to peace."

"To avert this danger, America must revise her policy and must more clearly show an attitude of co-operation with Japan and Great Britain for maintenance of tranquillity in the Pacific."

"Why must you act in such way as to impress upon others that you alone are to be trusted in the police duty of the Pacific?"

I had asked Mr. Matsuoka for his views on the 1935 naval conference. He did not hesitate to state them. There is nothing of the "inscrutable" Oriental of fiction about this twentieth century Samurai. Educated in America, his mind works like an Occidental's.

He is accustomed to speaking his mind whether to his own people, to the staid dignitaries of the League of Nations, or to foreign-

Equivoctions never settle anything, he says. They only pile up mischief.

PARLEY MUST SUCCEED.

"The 1935 conference," he continued earnestly, "must succeed. We can not afford to let it fail. If the conference ends in rupture, it will spell disaster for the world."

"But if we wish to insure its success, it is high time for us to set about improving the feelings and sentiments in both Japan and America toward each other."

"This is a most urgent necessity. It is the first and fundamental condition of success."

Nor should this be difficult, in Mr. Matsuoka's opinion. There is no material cause of conflict between the two countries.

But, he warned, "mere absence of apparent cause for conflict does not, in itself, constitute a sufficient guarantee for peace."

America, he argued, is vastly richer than Japan. So she can afford to build many ships while Japan can ill afford to do so.

Thus, he reasoned, "If America truly looks for peace, she should stop building and Japan would do the same."

PARITY IS PRINCIPLE.

"If, however, America continues to build—thereby incidentally betraying a suspicious mentality toward us—we will also build to the last cent of our purse."

"What about your contention for parity?" I asked.

"The Japanese contention for parity with America and Great Britain," he replied, "is a matter of principle. It should not alarm you at all."

"Have we not the right to claim it? Reverse the case again, and what would you say?"

"Do you foresee trouble with Russia?"

"There are some questions to be settled between Japan and the Soviet Union. I feel sure, however, that they are amenable to peaceful solution."

DANGER IN SOVIET SCHEMES.

"On the issue, however, of the subversive activities of the Soviet government in organizing a universal revolution of the proletariat and sovietizing China, Japan can permit of no compromise."

"Recently some of the Russians—taking advantage of American recognition—seem to be scheming to utilize America as a counterweight to Japan. But I believe your people have too much common sense to be made a cat's paw."

"Should America, however, allow herself by any chance to be so involved as to create an unfortunate appearance of aligning herself with Russia against Japan, it will only aggravate the situation in the Far East and prejudice the peaceful settlement of questions between Japan and the U.S.S.R."

CHINA'S CHAOS IS MENACE.

"What of Japan's China policy?"

"Much as I regret it, I am now obliged to say that, if left alone, China will continue to sink deeper and deeper into the mire of chaos and confusion."

"This hopeless condition constitutes a serious menace to Japan."

The Very Idea!

My Interview With SYRUP APHIS
By George

I WAS the only journalist admitted to Syrup Aphis' presence when she docked (I mean her boat docked) at Kowloon. I found her already in the cleaner's hands (the boat, of course, I mean), but Syrup was still in her stateroom. Her secretary, Mr. Terrapin, had been sorting out her marriage certificates and had just tied them up in a neat bundle. Five of them there were. "A comedy in five reels," said Aphis laughing ("comedy" she called it) as she held out her lovely manicured hand. "And say, I guess I've got more out of it than most stars. Five lots of experience, and three of alimony! Two of them haven't paid up, the tightwads; men are a lousy lot."

"I wonder, Miss Aphis," said I, "if you could tell me something of your plans?"

"Well," said Syrup, "I reckon it's up to a girl to see something of the world specially if she has admirers in every country who look up to her for a lead, same as they do to me since I played the nun in the Empty Cloister, as you'd know if you read my fan-mail; how many letters were there last week, Mr. Terrapin? Eighteen thousand, and I sent off over six hundred photographs; give Mr. George a photograph and sign it for him."

"So I reckon they ought to have a chance of seeing me in places like Hongkong, Paris, France and Berlin and Vienna and this other town, what's-it-called, Rome, and Monte Carlo and Biarritz, because a girl doesn't know, till she's in a position like mine, how much good she can do in the world; just by shedding an influence and answering her fan-mail and so on and so forth. And then I've to see my lawyers in Paris, France, about some alimony from my second husband, a Marquis he said he was, and plumb crazy about me, though Marquises are getting so common in the States now I was a doggone fool to be taken in by that. Well good-bye; it's been real nice to meet you and hear your point of view and I'm so glad you appreciate what I'm trying to do to make the world a happier place for others. Ask Mr. Terrapin if there's anything else you wanna know." And in a flick of her lovely eyelashes she was gone.

"Cute-ill-thing," muttered Terrapin, as the door closed behind her. I offered him a rather poor cigar.

Hymn of Praise

[To be chanted by all, kneeling, with their faces turned towards Downing-street.]

Let us praise Mr. Chamberlain, For the year has closed with a surplus.
Let us praise Mr. Chamberlain, The greatest Chancellor since***
[Insert here name of favourite Chancellor. Peel, Gladstone, Churchill, Snowden, are a few well-favoured suggestions.]

Let us praise the taxpayers Who have made this surplus possible.
Let us praise the taxpayers, Especially those who have paid.

Let us praise his Majesty's Ministers Who have set so splendid an example;
Four thousand a year for making speeches— Unintelligible, drivelling, speeches—

Is at any rate cheaper than five. Let us praise the unemployed Who so patriotically have insisted On helping to shoulder the burden.
Let us praise the unemployed Who have forgone both work and maintenance.

Let us praise the Government For whom we have made these sacrifices;
The Government which rallied the nation In its hour of crisis.

[For we know that there was a crisis; We were told so over the radio.]
Let us praise the Government Let us praise Mr. MacDonald; "Ah, my friend, the whole thing is a muddle; "We must muddle through as best we can; We have muddled through as best we could; Let us be thankful.

"Can't you stop that singing? I just got her to sleep."

VEXED QUESTION.

CAN DOGS BE TAKEN FROM TERRITORIES TO KOWLOON?

Can dogs be taken to and from the New Territories without a permit?

Public attention was focussed upon this question as the result of court proceedings last week, when a European lady residing in Kowloon was unsuccessfully summoned on a charge of bringing dogs into Kowloon without the permission of the Colonial Veterinary Surgeon.

We understand that several cases in respect to dog summonses which were to have come up for hearing this week have now been withdrawn.

The position has now been clarified by a communication which was issued to the press by the Inspector General of Police, Mr. T. H. King, on Saturday.

The communication is as follows:

In view of doubts which may have arisen as the result of proceedings (published in the local press on May 3 and May 4) in a case where a person was summoned for taking two dogs from the New Territory proper to Kowloon, without a permit from the Colonial Veterinary Surgeon, it is desirable to state the position in regard to movements of dogs on the Mainland.

For the purposes of the Dogs Ordinance and the Regulations thereunder, New Kowloon is not part of the New Territories.

Except under permit from the Colonial Veterinary Surgeon—

(a) No dog may be moved from the New Territory proper to New Kowloon.

(b) No dog may be moved from the New Territory proper to Kowloon.

A dog may be moved from Kowloon to New Kowloon, or vice versa, without a permit.

A dog may be moved from New Kowloon or Kowloon to the New Territory proper, without a permit, but it may not be brought back from the New Territories to either district, without a permit.

The reported quotation, by the solicitor in the case under reference, of Mr. Wolfe's view or suggested view, was entirely unauthorized.

TREBITSCH LINCOLN.

ARRESTED ON ARRIVAL AT LIVERPOOL.

Liverpool, May 6. Trebitsch Lincoln, who came to Britain to conduct a missionary tour, has been arrested.

The man who was formerly a Protestant and Roman Catholic priest and who became a Buddhist monk in China, was taken into custody when he disembarked here from the S.S. Duchess of York.

He was accompanied by five nuns, who carried Chinese, German and French passports. They had planned to accompany him on his missionary tour of England.

He will be deported to Canada, from where he arrived.—United Press.

Back To China!

Liverpool, May 6. Trebitsch Lincoln was detained in Liverpool when he landed today and will be deported to Canada and thence to the Far East. He will go back aboard the S.S. Duchess of York when that vessel returns from Antwerp, whither Lincoln declined to proceed.—Reuter.

HELPING INDIA

CENTRAL GOVERNMENT'S CO-OPERATION SCHEME

Simla, May 5. Far-reaching proposals, initiating a co-ordinated policy for the economic betterment of the country, have been issued by the Government of India.

Steps already decided include the appointment of central and provincial marketing officers, the inauguration of provincial marketing surveys and the establishment of a special committee for staple crops.

Other proposals include the co-ordination of agricultural production throughout India, especially in rice, wheat and oilseeds, the establishment of a central research institute for the sugar industry and the resumption of the appointment of Trade Commissioners abroad.

Provincial Governments, whom the Government of India, as the central authority, will assist with technical advice and co-ordination, are invited to submit comprehensive plans to improve the country's economic equipment.—Reuter.

Looking Round County Cricket Grounds

FINANCIAL DEPRESSIONS MAY BE LIFTED THIS SUMMER

amateur all-rounder who did so well last season, will also be free to play more regularly. I. A. R. Peebles and R. W. V. Robins expect to be available on many occasions.

NORTHAMPTONSHIRE

Northamptonshire's gate receipts increased by £700 last season, but there was a loss on the year's working of £1,488. By special efforts this was reduced to £363, and the decline in membership, which had been progressive for some years, was checked.

The county will have eight Saturday starts in 13 home games, and these should be of material assistance financially.

W. C. Brown will again be captain, and two young players, L. Cullen (a South African) and D. Brooks will be the newcomers.

NOTTINGHAMSHIRE'S LOSS.

The county lost £766 last year and the total indebtedness is now £4,262. Match receipts were down by £546, and subscriptions by £145.

The number of season tickets sold has been above the average for March.

SOMERSET'S OVERDRAFT.

Somerset's bank overdraft of nearly £2,000 has been reduced slightly. R. A. Ingle will again captain the side and other amateurs will be available, although J. C. White will play only occasionally.

The players report on April 9 and a trial game for youngsters will be staged on May 1.

SUSSEX FINANCES.

Sussex finished second in the championship last summer, but they had a disappointing year financially, nearly £700 being lost.

It is practically certain that there will be an increase in membership this season. Whist drives and dances run throughout the county during the winter months have met with splendid response.

Altogether, Sussex's financial outlook is distinctly encouraging.

Owing to business reasons, R. S. G. Scott is unable to captain the team, and another Oxford blue —Alan Melville—will take his place.

SURREY IMPROVE.

Surrey suffered last year because D. R. Jardine was unable to devote his whole attention to the game. P. G. H. Fender and occasionally M. J. C. Allom acted in his stead, but though all are excellent leaders the continual changes were not conducive to settled policy. E. T. R. Holmes' appointment for the current year should eliminate this handicap.

A profit of £1,000 was made on last season and the club have been able to spend over £4,000 out of their reserves in completing the ten-foot wall which now surrounds the Oval. Every seat on the ground has been provided with a back and an open stand seating 1,000 will be available for county matches without extra charge.

WARWICKSHIRE'S RECEIPTS.

Warwickshire prospects are not alluring, and yet those who have inside knowledge are not pessimistic. The deficit last year was £1,581, against £2,259 in the previous season. The receipts in 1933 were £500 more than in the previous year.

It is anticipated that R. E. S. Wyatt will be invited again to captain the side, with the Rev. J. H. Parsons, now Vicar of Hodnet, Shropshire, as his deputy.

WORCESTERSHIRE.

Worcestershire are looking ahead with confidence, although last year's balance sheet showed a loss on the season of £289. An appeal made by Major M. F. S. Jewell, a former captain, for new members has met with considerable success.

C. F. Walters will again captain the eleven. One new-comer is Frank Warner, son of a former Australian Test cricketer, who has himself played for Victoria in interstate matches at intervals since 1927. He is a right-hand, slow spin bowler.

YORKSHIRE FUND.

Yorkshire increased their membership last season for the first time since 1926, and it is now about 6,000. The gate receipts of £13,092 were also an increase. The club has now an accumulated fund of over £20,000.

Wilfred Barber is likely to be the successor of Percy Holmes as opening batsman with Sutcliffe. A. B. Sellers will continue as captain. Trials are being given to as many as nine fast bowlers.

Both the Giants and Yankees snatched victories, and the Senators held their own by blanking out Chicago and hitting up five runs in response.

Stoeffen America's New Tennis "Hope"

ACCLAIMED AS COUNTRY'S MOST PROMISING PLAYER

New York. America has a new tennis hero—a new hope for the Davis Cup team. He is Lester Stoeffen, the lanky Californian who sprang into the limelight with a vengeance here recently by blasting Gregory Mangin of the indoor courts in the finals of the National Indoor Tennis Championships, unseating him from the throne which he had held for two years.

It was Stoeffen who, in the semi-finals of last year's national singles championships at Forest Hills, fell before the withering attack of Fred Perry, of England, an attack which carried Perry through to a brilliant victory over Jack Crawford of Australia, and gave Great Britain the American single title for the first time in years.

By virtue of Stoeffen's great showing against Mangin, in which he demonstrated beyond all doubt that he is a greatly improved player in all phases of the game since he met Perry he is considered certain to be picked for the Davis Cup team this year.

Stoeffen who is taller than any man in the tennis world, either Professional or Amateur, is as keen as mustard to "make" the team this year. In his own words, it is "The Davis Cup Team or bust" for him. He has mapped out for himself a strenuous tennis programme for the next several weeks and will compete in various championships elsewhere with the view of getting himself into the best possible shape should he be named for the Davis Cup match against Canada.

The L.T.A. Tennis Tournament

MORE ENTRIES NEEDED

Tennis players are not giving the 25th anniversary open invitation tennis tournament, organised by the L.T.A., the support anticipated and desired, and unless further entries are received by Wednesday, it is doubtful whether the tournament will materialise. Present entries include the Rumlau cousins and Paul Kong in the men's singles, but the remainder of the events require much better support, especially the men's doubles and ladies' singles.

It is to be sincerely hoped that this will be forthcoming so that the tournament, which has been arranged to mark the 25th anniversary of organised tennis in the Colony, can be conducted. Entries close on Wednesday, April 9, at 4.30 p.m., and intending competitors should send in their forms to Mr. D. S. Green, Messrs. Dunlop Rubber Co. (China) Ltd., "Morning Post" Building, accompanied by the entrance fees, which are $4 per event per player.

at Wilmington, Delaware, in May. In his match against Perry, the Californian was monotonously bad with his backhand shots. One after another they went straight into the net.

But it was a different Stoeffen against Mangin. In each stroke he was a champion. His backhanders functioned well, and his whip-lash service had the audience, the largest ever to witness the national indoor singles championship final, literally gasping. Prior to defeating Mangin he turned back Frank Shields in the semi-final with a dazzling display of tennis—and Shields is rated as one of the next American Davis Cup players.

FOR THE GOVERNOR'S CUP

WING COMBINATIONS PLAY IMPORTANT PART

(By "The Pilgrim")

No more thrilling football contest than that by which the Hongkong Football Association defeated the China Amateur Athletic in the Governor's Cup Final at Happy Valley on Saturday has been served up to the fans this season.

Playing goal for goal in a dour duel beneath a blazing sun and before a capacity-filled ground, the two teams were three-all when the final whistle sounded and it was only a swerving shot which beat Wong Wing in the extra twenty minutes played, which settled the issue.

Right up to the last moment the Chinese looked certain to equalise but throughout the game, the Football Association's goal seemed to bear a charmed life.

As predicted in the Telegraph, fast wingers decided the day and the crowd was treated to many thrilling runs on up the sideline from which most of the scores were made.

E. Strange, playing at centre-forward found the personality of the wings too powerful for him to co-ordinate but they functioned splendidly separately.

STRANGE AT WING.

Later, but not soon enough, Strange went to the right wing position and allowed the Gosano brothers to fill in the centre but had this policy been adopted when it was first self-evident at half-time—there would have been no need to play extra time.

Lee Wal-tong was the deadliest man on the field. For the first half he concentrated on putting the other inside men through but when they failed to notch the scores he changed his methods in the second half and though shadowed closely, scored all China's goals. Each was a grand effort and secured against tremendous difficulties.

From the kickoff the Association's left wing was in action but Blake was not able to centre well and the ball went up the field to call Morrison and Mullane into action. It was soon evident that the Association's defence was on top of its form. Blake forced a corner and Lee initiated a movement from which Cord had to save.

The Gosano brothers were playing effectively together and A. V. Gosano put through Strange in a goal-getting movement which was nullified by off-side.

CLEVER GOSANOS.

Lee then got the ball and trickily put Fung through but off-side also blocked this movement. China's right wing sent in a high testing shot which Cord dealt with but the Chinese continued to press.

Morrison temporarily incapacitated himself with a hard tackle.

Again A. V. Gosano cleverly beat his man and sent through a pass which Strange could not catch to convert. Podmore sent Blake away but the speedy winger out-paced line and centred to a watchful goalkeeper. Bernie centred twice the last one finding Blake's head but the effort was held. The ball went from head to head up the field in a Chinese attack.

FIRST GOAL.

A not too well planned move found the Association massed round the China goal and Strange booted the ball past to not an inauspicious first goal.

Mullane and Morrison were pressed heavily and Cord's knee appeared to fall him at a critical time. Then Ridley brought relief with a pass to Blake and the winger took the ball to the goal mouth where he tripped over the keeper.

It appeared that the goalkeeper held his legs but a corner was ordered there also being some uncertainly as to whether Blake was on-side.

The Chinese defence remained admirably firm and their half line functioned smoothly. Blake centred a ground shot and after everyone else had missed it, Bernie Gosano put it over the bar much to his own chagrin.

Ridley was fouled and Podmore varied the practice of shooting over the bar by punting a hole in the surrounding enclosure as well.

ROBERTSON SOUND.

Robertson was playing a conscientious game and was dealing effectively with his speedy winger while also playing as a third back.

Cord saved well a blinding five yards shot which should have been a goal. Lee had started the movement and he followed up with a header which Cord also held.

A. V. Gosano had a good chance to go through but he preferred to give to Blake and muffed the pass. Two Kwa-sheung gave to Lee who passed to the unmarked Lee Pak-wa but as he took the shot Mullane blocked in the nick of time.

Bernie placed the ball between his brother and the goalkeeper and the latter won the race by a split second.

Then the China right wing gave the spectators some hair-raising thrills with continual dropping centres in the Association's goalmouth.

It seemed certain that China would score but at the critical time Robertson appeared to walk the ball up-field.

CHINA PRESSING.

So far this was China's most inspired spell and only the demon of fortune had prevented them from scoring.

Strange was running through but he missed the area by a mile and was beaten by the keeper. Bernie took the ball up and centred but Strange went wide with his head.

A ground shot from the Chinese right half was only just outside the posts.

The interval came with the Association leading by one goal.

The resumption saw high passes go astray and not a few miskicks with Mullane prominent in defence at a testing period.

Lau Mau cleverly beat Jones and centred but Mullane cleared and sent Bernie off to score with a beautiful cross ground shot which had the goalkeeper beaten all the way.

Though against the run of the play this was a good goal and would have discouraged any other team.

Blake sent a really fast ball across the goalmouth a moment later.

Strange was giving an amazing indifferent performance as leader while Lee was beginning to come out in more dangerous phases.

The ball went to Podmore and hit him on the arm-pit. He had his back to the referee who, probably acting on the linesman's signal ordered a free-kick. A rapid exchange of passes saw Lee poised for a moment in front of goal with little more than a ball's width of room to shoot.

He shot and reduced the arrears with an untouchable effort.

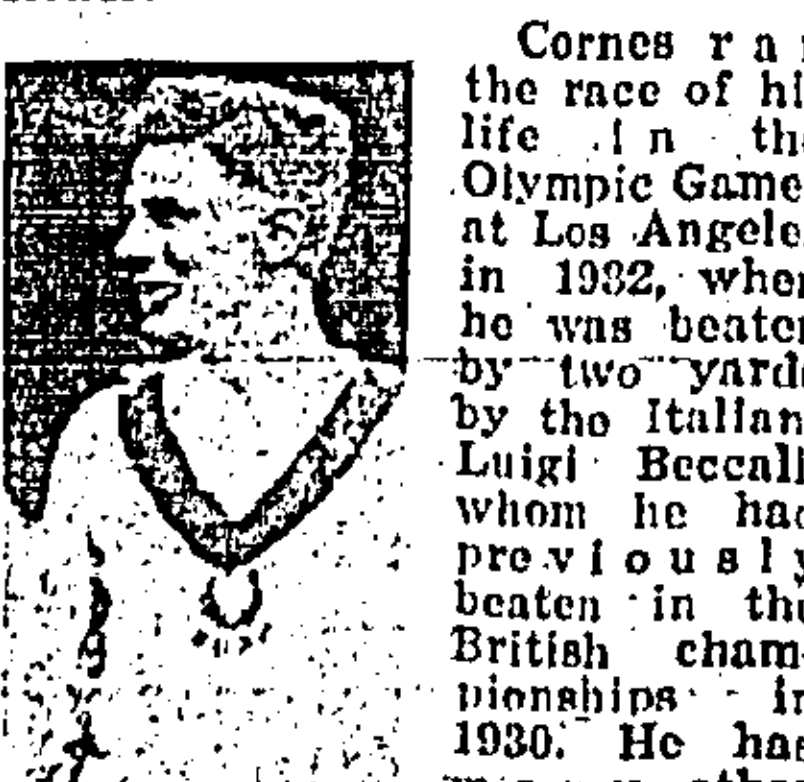

Cord, the F.A. goalkeeper, makes a daring clearance over the heads of Mullane and a Chinese attacker during Saturday's Governor's Cup match on the Club ground. (Photo: Ming Yuen).

LOVELOCK'S FORMER RIVAL RETURNING

England Hoping to See J. F. Cornes on Track Again

London, May 1. A well-known athlete, about whom more may be heard shortly is J. F. Cornes, the former Oxford University athletics president, who is coming to England for six months' leave from Nigeria, where he is Assistant District Commissioner.

Cornes ran the race of his life in the Olympic Games at Los Angeles in 1932, when he was beaten by two yards by the Italian, Luigi Beccali, whom he had previously beaten in the British championships in 1930. He has many other notable achievements to his credit. He excelled not only at middle distances, but also at the longer events, although he preferred the former. His stirring duels with his Oxford rival, J. E. Lovelock, will not easily be forgotten.—Reuter.

CHINA DRAW LEVEL.

At 2-1 the Chinese found their most brilliant form.

Twice the left wing passed Robertson and the defence had a grueling time. Then Strange was sent away. Had he passed a goal would probably have resulted but he was robbed.

A clever piece of footwork by Lee who was exhibiting magnificent ball control, and every trick in the game, took him past Morrison. He centred to Lee who beat two men and crashed home wide of Cord's outstretched hands to draw on level terms.

The same winger figured in a thrilling lone struggle with the backs and forced them to concede a corner which Morrison headed clear.

BLAKE SCORES.

Bernie got away but was beaten by the keeper and then Blake received from across field and beating his man ran on to smash home a low hard drive which took the Association ahead again.

Blake was always in the picture in the second half and his sorties were well backed up by Ridley the two presenting as good a combination almost as the Gosanos.

Lee and the centre-forward imperilled the Association goal every time they had possession and Morrison interposed his foot just in time to save another pile driver from Lee from 10 yards out.

Return Badminton Match

The Jockey Club and Kowloon Cricket Club meet in their return badminton match to-morrow evening at Happy Valley.

The K.C.C., who were defeated on their own court a fortnight ago, are turning out the same team, although there will possibly be different pairing.

Collins will very likely be partnered by Guest, while Wigg and Gray will return to their erstwhile combination and Kew will turn out with E. F. Fincher.

The Jockey Club may have to make one change, as W. C. Hung is uncertain whether he can turn out, but they are hoping to play the same team as that which beat the K.C.C. in the first encounter.

Their team will probably be: F. H. Kwok and S. W. Liang, Sousa and Choy, W. C. Hung and E. Zimmermann.

Max Baer In Trouble With His Manager

WHILE CARNERA EXCHANGES VIEWS WITH AL CAPONE

Lake Tahoe, California. Disension has broken out between the manager and the trainer of Max Baer, who is training here for his fight with Primo Carnera next June.

The dispute occurred over training rules. Mr. Andre Hoffman, manager, told Mr. Mike Cantwell, trainer, that the latter was allowing Max too much, rein. Mr. Cantwell "allowed" that such was not the case.

One of the points at issue was that Max was doing some long distance tuning in on Hollywood night clubs at 11 p.m. Training schedules call for him to be in bed by 9 p.m.

DODGED DAYLIGHT.

Baer's manager adheres to the opinion that, in view of the fact that his fighter has done all his training since last June in Hollywood night clubs as a matter of ceremony, helping to make a movie and generally dodging daylight, the middle of next June is not any too far away to get him into condition.

After the dispute Max and his trainer jaunted over to Reno to see some friends and to tell the night club owners that they will have to get along without him for a while, at any rate.

SHOCK FOR TAIKOO

LOSE LAWN BOWLS RECORD

CRAIGENGOWER KEEP IT UP

In only needed Saturday's results to convince that this summer is going to see one of the keenest contests for lawn bowls league honours in the history of the local game.

Craigengower "B", last year's second division champions defeated the powerful Police outfit in the senior section, whilst at the same time the "Craig" No. 1 team showed Kowloon Docks how to win, and the Kowloon Bowling Green went to Taikoo, upset a traditional record, and so maintained their leadership.

There should be half a dozen intensely interesting games later in the season when the Bowling Green meet the two Craigengower teams, and the C.C.C. outfits come into opposition.

HUMPTY-DUMPTY.

The Recrelo's "Humpty-Dumpty" experience at the hands of Civil Service was not altogether a surprise, although the margin of defeat was somewhat larger than the most pessimistic of the Portuguese supporters would have anticipated.

In the Junior Division we had the initial success of the Football Club, together with the first win this season of the Indian Recreation Club. The soccerists took it out of the K.C.C., by no less than 13 shots.

But the I.R.C. laid in wait for none other than Craigengower (and on the latter's green at that) to win by 18 shots.

In accordance with expectations, the champions added two further points to the tally which is bringing them nearer retention of the honours, but the rejuvenated Yacht Club was not to be outdone, and took toll of the Police in an uncertain manner.

within the Federal prison here. Capone, standing by a window in the shoe shop, was pointed out to the world's heavyweight champion by one of the guards. Primo clasped his hands above his head in the fashion boxers follow in the ring and waved lustily.

Both grinned, but no words were spoken. Capone, apparently as excited as a schoolboy, rushed from one window to another, keeping Primo in sight as long as possible. As the champion entered another building he turned about, waved his huge hands and smiled broadly.

INTEREST IN PRISON.

The Italian giant walked with a lumbering tread through the corridors, and evidenced a boyish interest in everything shown him by the prison guides.

The prisoners, not having been told of the visit of the champion, were taken by surprise at the sight of Primo. There was no demonstration, but many of the prisoners remarked with awe at his size, especially his feet.

"HI, FELLAS."

Carnera's only greeting was "Hi, fellas." Jake Abel, a former Atlanta boxer who assists prison authorities in staging the occasional boxing shows there, told the champion that Capone was a model prisoner.

Carnera offered to give an exhibition "but regulations" forced prison officials to decline. However, Primo's promise to box at the prison on his next trip to Atlanta was accepted.

BOLTON PIPPED ON PROMOTION POST

AND BARNESLEY LEAVE CHESTERFIELD WITH THE DIRTY END OF THE STICK

ENGLISH FOOTBALL SEASON ENDS

(By "The Pilgrim")

Chesterfield failed and Barnesley succeeded on Saturday in settling the promotion question to their own satisfaction on Saturday, the former failing by a point and goal average to secure top place.

Stockport maintained their unbeaten home record in the last game of the season to smash the hopes of the Salter Lane side whilst New Brighton, playing magnificent football were only beaten by the one goal of the match.

It was sufficient however to ensure Barnesley's promotion with Chesterfield sharing the points at Stockport.

Bolton, the team favoured to go with Grimsby into the First Division were beaten at Lincoln who ironically enough are due for relegation themselves.

Brentford won their match at Bury but so did Preston win at Southampton and to them goes the honour of runner-up and promotion.

Preston owed their win to the best goalkeeper, Holdthorpe who was magnificent while Palethorpe, the leader was off the field suffering from temporary concussion after contact with Hough. Palethorpe was back immediately and he went right away to score the winning goal.

There were 35,000 at Millwall, the biggest crowd of the day, to see Manchester United beat the Den inhabitants by 2-0. Manley's early goal encouraged the United and they pressed hotly. Cope seconded but the Millwall team stuck doggedly to the task and had an equal share of the rest of the game.

MAMAK HOCKEY

REST TEAM BEAT CHAMPIONS

PERKINS HURT

An unfortunate accident to G. Perkins in the closing stages of the game marred the Champions v. Rest match in connection with the Mamak Tournament on the Marina ground yesterday.

At the time the Police, who were playing under the title of League champions, were one goal in arrears and were making a concerted attack on the Rest goal. The ball came over from the right and Perkins rushed in to take the pass. In so doing he collided with Cross in the goal-mouth and collapsed. He was taken off the field, apparently suffering from slight concussion, and taken to hospital.

There were several changes made in the Rest side from that originally picked. Cross (Signals) appeared between the sticks in place of Moss (C.B.A.), and P. Singh came in for Rhodes (Medway). In the intermediate line Hussain (K.I.T.C.) deputised for A. B. Hanson (St. Andrews), and in the forward line N. A. E. Mackay (St. Andrews) taking his place at inside right, while the left flank was composed of J. M. Pinto and A. P. de Souza, to the exclusion of Major Withington and R. Baldwin.

The game was scrappy throughout, with both forward lines weak. Opportunities were missed in the circle. The defenders on both sides were called upon time after time and kept their goals clear with sound hitting.

The Police came near to scoring late in the second half, when P. Singh was pulled up for kicking in the goal-mouth and a penalty-penalty was awarded. Wass bullied with P. Singh, but the latter managed to deflect the ball round the post.

The Rest netted the only goal of the game.

GERMAN TENNIS ACE IN FORM

WINS TALLY-HO TOURNEY

London.

D. Prenn, the former German Davis Cup player, beat A. C. Stedman, the New Zealand Davis Cup player, by 6-1, 7-6, in the final of the men's singles in the Tally Ho! open lawn tennis tournament last month.

The first set was an easy affair for Prenn. The second was exhilarating, with rallies of exceptional brilliance, a four fight for nearly every point, and shots that were worthy of a championship. The New Zealander drove with a ferocity that has seldom been equalled in lawn tennis in the Midlands. His mistakes were tactical ones. Like C. E. Hare, he preferred to attack prenn's backhand, which has been made well-nigh perfect by continuous practice with the aid of a mechanical device invented by Rene Lacoste, which can be made to project balls out at any angle in any direction and at any pace.

WINNING LOBS.

But though Stedman attacked this stronger wing he kept such a perfect length and maintained such speed that he made Prenn go all out.

Stedman lobbed very well, and this shot won many points when Prenn went to the net.

Miss Yorke beat Mrs. Haylock in the final of the Women's Singles by 4-6, 6-1, 6-1. The winner, although she is considered better in doubles than in singles, played just the right type of game to overcome the super-steadiness of Mrs. Haylock. Miss Yorke used the oblique half-court shot that got Mrs. Haylock out of position, and then drove deep to the opposite side of the court, advanced to the net, and usually made her winning point with her third stroke of the rally.

Those tactics, if Miss Yorke can continue to control the ball as she did will take her a long way forward in tennis ranking.

The game in the second half following some neat work on the left by Souza, which culminated in Pinto netting.

GLORIOUS DISPLAY ENDS LOCAL SOCCER SEASON

Lee who staided himself and shot from 20 yards a hard rising ball which struck the underside of the bar and bounced in past Cord's clutching hands.

The teams were on level terms and at full time it was decided to play 10 minutes extra time each way.

It appeared that the Association defence would go to pieces under the swift attacks continually launched on them. A. V. Gosano had taken the centre forward position but he soon had to go back to fetch the ball up.

Strange was showing up better on the right wing but Cord in goal was doing acrobatics to keep his charge intact.

Blake ran away on his own but his shot from a difficult angle was held.

A. V. Gosano put in a wonderful header but the Chinese keeper was there with sure hands to clear.

Then the leader gave to Strange who centred for Ridley to gather, turn round and place a high, swerving ball well out of reach into the corner of the net.

This was the deciding goal of the match. A. V. Gosano went into the pivot position and playing three backs and three halves the Association managed to win.

Gosano was as brilliant in defence as he was in attack and Mullane and Morrison—though the latter was perhaps more in the picture—played a perfect and understanding game.

Blake had more than justified his selection and the Gosano combination had shown that a little brushing up would see it as effective as ever.

The halves worked like trojans all through and though overshadowed at times by the scintillating cleverness of the Chinese forward line, they never gave up.

STANDINGS OF THE CLUBS

BIG PROFITS & LOSSES OF LAST YEAR

FINANCIAL DEPRESSIONS MAY BE LIFTED THIS SUMMER

The homeside county cricket season promises to liberate our county clubs from the bog of continued financial loss.

The splendid weather of last summer played its part, and nearly every club showed a far more satisfactory turnover than was the case the previous year.

If ever opportunity stared cricket in the face, it will do so during the approaching season. The visit of the Australians will have a twofold effect upon the prospects of the county clubs. Already club membership and applications for season tickets have shown a decided increase. The game as a whole will attract the attention of a wider public.

The moral is plain: Don't send this eager public to sleep with featureless exhibitions of stonewalling but give them fair samples of the joy of cricket.

DERBYSHIRE'S 1930 LOSS.

Derbyshire showed a loss of £950 on last year's working, but they start the season with a balance in hand of £335, and officials are optimistic about the future.

A. W. Richardson has shaken off the illness which kept him out of the team frequently last season, and he is to continue in the captaincy.

ESSEX'S NEW POLICY.

Essex will embark with confidence on a season with some interesting changes. Their abandonment of Leyton and following of Kent's example in distributing their fixtures throughout the county may prove to be a happy policy.

Already solid in batting strength, Essex should gain much by more successful bowling. K. Farnes and A. G. Dyer will be available for part of the season, and it is hoped that more will be seen of H. T. O. Smith and H. D. Read—the latter a very fast bowler who is much better than his last year's figures might suggest. T. N. Pearce and D. R. Wilcox will again be joint captains. Last year's record playing season produced a profit of £172.

GLAMORGAN'S PROFIT.

Glamorgan's financial position has never been better. Last season the club made a profit of £600, and as the result of a public appeal the total debt has been reduced from £4,000 to approximately

£1,000. For the first time county cricket in South Wales is paying its way.

M. J. Turnbull will carry out the dual duty of captain and secretary.

GLOUCESTERSHIRE'S LOSS.

Gloucestershire lost £603 compared with £1,432 in 1932. There was an increase in membership and gate receipts, and the committee explain that the loss was almost entirely due to the rental of £600 for the county ground, which has now become the property of the club.

B. H. Lyon will again be captain. Matthews, fast, and Cranfield, slow, are two new bowlers for whom places may be found during the season.

HAMPSHIRE'S LOSSES.

"We cannot go on as we are," declared Sir Russell Bencraft, chairman of the committee, "because there is a loss every year." There is a heavy overdraft at the end of the season, and reduced gate receipts. The club has lost 1,000 members since 1926, the present membership being 1981. The loss on last season was £261.

The captaincy will be taken over by Geoffrey Lowndes, who succeeds Lord Tennyson.

KENT'S REDUCED PROFIT.

Kent finished last season with a profit of £267, as against £1,229 the previous year, but special donations and compensation accounted for £972 of the difference. A gratuity of £500 was made to Hardinge on his retirement.

A. P. F. Chapman will again lead the team, with B. H. Valentine, who did so well with the M.C.C. in India, as vice-captain. C. S. Marriott will be available during the holidays.

LANCASHIRE'S £2,400 PROFIT.

Lancashire will have much the same side as last season. They are still searching for a fast bowler to fill Macdonald's place.

The county turned an adverse balance of over £3,000 into a profit of £2,400 last year. P. T. Ekersley will be available once more as captain.

DEFICIT HALVED.

Leicestershire began this year with a deficit of £2,809, as against a deficit at the beginning of 1933 of £5,192. A special effort is being made to obtain 1,000 more members, and the prospects are fairly encouraging.

Arthur Hazlerigg, a former captain of Cambridge University, and son of Sir A. Hazlerigg, who was captain of Leicestershire about twenty years ago, will lead the team this season.

MIDDLESEX FINDING TALENT.

Middlesex have put in train a systematic scheme for unearthing players of talent throughout the county, and a Young Players Subcommittee has been appointed to carry out the search.

It is doubtful if Durston will play regularly for the county this season. It is more probable that his gifts will be principally directed to the coaching of younger players.

J. Smith, the Wiltshire fast bowler and big hitter, will be eligible to play for Middlesex this year, and P. F. Judge, the young

"THE NIGHT WAS MADE FOR LOVE!"

"ARE YOU ASLEEP YET DARLING?"

"No dear...I'm still thinking of that marvelous picture... when Ramon Novarro sang those love songs to Jeanette MacDonald, it positively took me back to our honeymoon days... that picture will thrill everybody who was ever in love... it's so gay and romantic... and those Jerome Kern songs... to my mind 'Cat and The Fiddle' is the best musical I've ever seen... no wonder it played two years on Broadway... I'm going to give it the liveliest promotion I've ever given a picture in this town..."

SUMMER DELIGHTS.

SODA FOUNTAIN IN GLOUCESTER LOUNGE

An event of more than usual interest is the opening to-day of a modern soda fountain and Ice Cream Service in the ground floor, Gloucester Lounge. This installation is described as the most up-to-date of its kind, being specially constructed for perfect hygienic dispensing of ice cream and soda fountain specialties, in all varieties.

With its usual policy of giving patrons always of the best, the Gloucester management advise that only Dairy Farm ice cream, milk, cream and general products of that well-known firm will be used in the making of all the many toothsome specialties contained in the very attractive Soda Fountain and Ice Cream menu.

Commencing also to-day in the Lounge, Gloucester patrons may partake of a delectable variety of cold tiffin dishes, served in an atmosphere of attractive coolness that will make the prospect of eating during the summer days a pleasure.

Both these new additions should, if that is possible, add to the popularity of this pleasant rendezvous.

BRITAIN-JAPAN

COTTON SPINNERS URGE ACTION

London, May 5. The Federation of Master Cotton Spinners has informed the President of the Board of Trade, Mr. Walter Runciman, of its opposition to any further Anglo-Japanese textile negotiations.

The Federation urged the Minister to proceed with measures for the industry's protection without permitting further Japanese procrastination.

Mr. Runciman is reported to have disclosed the scheme of Colonial quotas on Japanese imports to the governments of the various Dominions, which is the usual modern formality. It will require some months before any international action can be taken.

It is assumed that the policy will be applied immediately and implacably in Japan remains adamant in her stand against negotiations embracing other territories than British Colonial markets.

The economic reaction from Canada is that Japan is stealing Canadian trade in the Colonies, particularly in the rubber footwear, of which Canada is the pioneer.

Canadian authorities predict a united Empire action as the nucleus of an international movement to overcome the Japanese competition.—Our Own Correspondent.

Paris, May 5.

The Cabinet this morning adopted the Minister of the Interior's plan for the reorganisation of the Surete Generale (the French Scotland Yard).

This decision is a sequel to the Stavisky scandal revelations. The decree enforcing the reorganisation plan was later signed by President Lebrun.

LESSON SERMON.

FIRST CHURCH OF CHRIST, SCIENTIST, HONGKONG

"Everlasting Punishment" was the subject of the Lesson-Sermon in all Churches of Christ, Scientist, on Sunday, May 6.

The Golden Text was: "Shall not the Judge of all the earth do right?" (Genesis 18:25).

Among the citations which comprised the Lesson-Sermon was the following from the Bible: "Remember, I pray thee, who ever perished, being innocent or where were the righteous cut off? Even as I have seen, they that plow iniquity, and sow wickedness, reap the same.... Be not deceived; God is not mocked: for whatsoever a man soweth, that shall he also reap." (Job 4:7, 8, Gal. 6:7).

The Lesson-Sermon also included the following passages from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy: "Error excludes itself from harmony. Sin is its own punishment.... Do you ask wisdom to be merciful and not to punish sin? Then 'ye ask amiss.' Without punishment, sin would multiply.... The moral law, which has the right to acquit or condemn, always demands restitution before mortals can 'go up higher' (pp. 537, 10, 11).

PANIC DURING SHOOTING

Swatow, May 6.
Four anti-piracy guards aboard the Chinese coastal steamer, Tai Yi, are reported to have been shot dead during a sharp battle with a gang of twelve or thirteen pirates who attacked the vessel near Swatow on Friday evening.

The pirates were travelling as passengers, but failed to effect their coup by surprise and found the guards offering spirited resistance. Sharp shooting continued for half-an-hour before the guards were shot down or overpowered.

Panic reigned among the passengers during the battle and, in the confusion, it is stated, several of them were crushed to the side of the ship and accidentally thrust overboard and drowned.

LARGE HAIL

The pirates having gained control of the bridge directed the ship to a small bay near Biag Bay where their booty, obtained after stripping the passengers and crew of all their belongings, was taken ashore. It is understood that the haul exceeded $10,000 in value, including over $4,000 in money.

The pirated steamer, which plies between Huang Kiang and Swatow, arrived in Swatow on Saturday evening, reporting the events in the notorious raid to the local authorities.—Central News.

Will Insull "Spill the Beans"

SPEEDY TRIAL DEMANDED

SENSATIONAL STORY POSSIBLE

(By Telegraph Copyright, Telegraphic Magazine, Ordinance, 1934. Received May 7, 1934 a.m.)

Chicago, May 6.
It is learned that the District Attorney, who has charge of the case against Mr. Samuel Insull, intends to demand an early trial of the fallen utilities magnate.

Mr. Samuel Insull is expected to arrive in the United States in the middle of this week.

It is rumored that the trial may produce some sensational evidence and that hosts of other people may become involved if Mr. Insull elects to tell the whole story of the colossal losses suffered by the great combine over which he exercised control.

It is rumored that he intends to break the silence which he has hitherto imposed upon himself and may "bust things wide," perhaps involving some of America's best known business men.—United Press.

OCCASIONAL RAIN

The anticyclone is situated in the Pacific to the east of Central Japan. A shallow depression covers S. W. China. Local forecast: "South winds, moderate; cloudy; occasional rain."

Joy-Rider Overtakes Car

MR. P. M. HODGSON VICTIMISED

How a Chinese youth's "joy-ride" in a motor car belonging to Mr. P. M. Hodgson came to an unhappy end was related to Mr. Wynne-Jones at the Kowloon Magistracy this morning when Henry Lam and another youth, Tsang King, were charged with (1) driving a motor car without the permission of the owner, (2) driving a motor car without an appropriate licence and (3) failing to report an accident.

Traffic Inspector Saunders told the Court that the car in question belonged to Mr. Hodgson, who left it in Cameron Road on May 4. At 9.30 p.m. the car was taken away, driven to Kowloon City, and on the way back overturned near the junction of Prince Edward Road and Waterloo Road.

The accident was witnessed by Mr. Cleme, who saw somebody crawling out of the car and running away. He immediately phoned for an ambulance but on its arrival nobody was found inside the car.

COVERED IN BLOOD

Traffic Sergeant Scrim was informed, and he at once set out to make inquiries. Henry who was known to the police, for this type of offence, was suspected by Sergeant Scrim, who went to his house and found him covered with bloodstains and suffering from abrasions. He was taken to the Police Station, where, on being questioned, he admitted having taken the car away.

Lam pleaded guilty this morning but Tsang King told the Court that he was invited by Lam to go for a ride. He did not know that there was anything wrong. Inspector Saunders said Tsang King was arrested as the result of information supplied by Henry Lam, but apart from that, the police had no evidence against him.

Tsang King was accordingly discharged.

PREVIOUS OFFENCE

With regard to the other defendant, Inspector Saunders reminded his Worship that he had been up last March for the same offence. He was fined altogether $100 and was warned that if he did this sort of thing again, he would go to prison without the option of a fine. Inspector Saunders said he took a very serious view of the case and asked his Worship to inflict a term of imprisonment without the option of a fine.

Damage done to Mr. Hodgson's car, it was stated, was in the neighbourhood of $300.

On the first charge, defendant was sentenced to two months; on the second charge, he was fined $50 or one month, consecutively; on the third, he was fined $50 or one month, concurrently.

Regarding the last charge, his Worship remarked: "He was hardly likely to report under the circumstances."

STOCK EXCHANGE CONTROL

INDUSTRIALISTS URGE CHANGES

Washington, May 6.
Twenty-eight American industrialists, including Mr. W. B. Bell, Mr. Rolland J. Hamilton, Mr. T. M. Girdler and Mr. F. A. Merriam have addressed a letter to the sponsors of the Stock Exchange Bill urging further revision on the ground that "many provisions extend their scope far beyond the regulation of exchanges' speculation."

The Senate takes up the Bill on Monday, May 7, and is expected to vote on Wednesday.—Reuter.

BRITAIN'S FUTURE MAMMOTH OF THE SEAS. How the new Cunarder, which is to be launched at the end of September, will look when completed. The vessel will be 1,018 feet long and of 73,000 tons gross. She will probably be also the fastest liner on the high seas.

QUEEN TO CHRISTEN NEW CUNARDER

LAUNCH AT END OF SEPTEMBER

(By Telegraph Copyright, Telegraphic Magazine, Ordinance, 1934. Received May 7, 1934 a.m.)

London, May 7.
It is officially announced that Her Majesty the Queen will perform the christening ceremony at the launching of the new giant Cunarder, now known as No. 534.

Britain's determination to concentrate world attention upon the super-liner is believed to have influenced the decision to ask Her Majesty to perform the ceremony. It is indicated that the vessel will be ready for launching from Messrs. John Brown's yard at the end of September and that His Majesty the King will accompany the Queen and will witness the launch.

It is interesting to note that this will be the first ship christened by Queen Mary since the Coronation.

It is understood that the vessel is to be called "Britannia."—United Press.

KNOCKED DOWN BY CYCLISTS

TWO CASES REPORTED YESTERDAY

Two cases were reported to the police yesterday, of pedestrians having been knocked down and injured by push-bicyclists.

The first case which occurred in Bulkeley Street, Kowloon, concerned a woman, Chan Chan-po, who, after the accident, was sent to the Kowloon Hospital for treatment for minor injuries.

In the other accident, a man, Chan Lim, was injured about the legs through being run into unexpectedly from behind, in Wan-chai, and was also sent to hospital.

AMERICA'S ECONOMIC PLIGHT

PROF. WARBURG'S REMEDIES

"MONEY MUDDLE"

New York, May 6.
The adoption by the United States of a gold bullion standard instead of a gold coin standard is advocated in a new book by Professor Warburg.

The book is entitled "The Money Muddle," and deals comprehensively with America's economic plight.

Regarding America's fiscal policy, the author recommends a middle course between complete economic nationalism and internationalism.

He says that silver advocates want cheaper money, in which case there is no reason why it should stop at silver. They might just as well clamour for iron, or tin, or just plain paper.

Professor Warburg, it will be recalled, was one of the principal economic advisers to the American delegation to the World Economic Conference.—Reuter.

SILVER EXPERT IN COLONY

MEETING BANKERS AT TIFFIN

Professor Rogers, the American silver expert, who is engaged upon an official mission of investigation at the request of President Roosevelt, arrived in the Colony last evening from Canton.

He told a Telegraph representative this morning that he could not grant any interviews concerning his study of the silver question in China.

A tiffin party is being held at the Hongkong Hotel to-day at which Professor Rogers will meet a number of local banking men.

WHOLE FAMILY DEAD

TERRIBLE AFFAIR IN SHANGHAI

WIDOW & THREE CHILDREN

(Special to "Telegraph")

Shanghai, May 7.
A terrible tragedy was discovered in the International Settlement on Saturday, when the four members of the family of the late Mr. Chin Li-chai was found dead from narcotic poisoning.

The victims were the widow, her two sons and daughter.

The circumstances are difficult to reconstruct, but it is believed that the widow and her younger son were the first to die, and that her elder son and daughter, returning to the house to find their mother dead, themselves took poison.

EDITOR'S WIDOW

The late Mr. Chin Li-chai was editor of one of the leading vernacular newspapers, the Sin Po, until his death, after a long illness, in February.

His wife was grief-stricken and further worried by the condition of her younger son, who was suffering from tuberculosis. It is believed that, during a temporary fit of insanity, she poisoned him and then took a fatal dose herself.—Central News.

SIR LOUIS BERNHARD BARON DEAD

Carreras Chairman's Sudden End

He had been associated with cigarette making from early manhood, first with the Baron Cigarette Machinery Company, pioneers of cigarette-making by machinery, and for the last 20 years with Carreras.

A baronetcy was conferred upon him in 1930. He was 67 years of age.—Reuter.

SILVERITES STILL HOPEFUL

New York, May 6.
After a preliminary conference with the President, Senator King predicted that silver legislation will be enacted this session. There will be a further conference on Monday.

BERLIN PROGRESS

GERMAN DEBTS PROBLEMS

WORKING FASTER THAN EXPECTED

London, May 7.

Very little has transpired up to now concerning the progress of the German Debts Conference which has been discussing the transfer problems in Berlin since April 27.

The first official intimation of progress is contained in a statement issued by the President of the Conference, Mr. Leon Fraser, chairman of the Bank of International Settlements, who says that the work is proceeding much faster than he expected, though he indicates that there is still much ground to be covered.

In the meantime, Reuter's Washington correspondent says that the Ambassador in Berlin was instructed to inform the German Government that American opposition to discrimination against American bondholders was unchanged.

The text of the protest against discrimination has not been published, but it is believed that it reiterates the protest made in January against the preferential treatment accorded the Dutch and Swiss bondholders.—Reuter.

SOVIET MINING DISASTER

Moscow, May 6.

Six of Russia's most important engineers were among those who perished in a mining disaster in the Krivoyrog Basin.

A portion of the mine caved in during experiments which were directed towards achieving increases in production. Many of those engaged in the experiments were buried and were dead when dug out.

Cheng Ham, a mat maker, was sentenced to two months' imprisonment by Mr. Hamilton, this morning, for the unlawful possession of a pair of jade bangles, two pairs of gold ear-rings and a woollen cardigan, the total value of $34, at Centre Street.

WAR DEBTS SOLUTION HINT

INTEREST MAY BE WAIVED

PRINCIPAL TO BE PAID IN 50 YEARS

FINNISH OFFER

Washington, May 7.

Speculation regarding the future of war debts has been aroused by the Attorney-General's ruling that Britain is not a defaulter under the Johnson Act, coupled with news that President Roosevelt is sending a War Debts Message to Congress within a fortnight.

The Attorney-General's ruling is regarded in diplomatic circles as decidedly advantageous to Britain, and as clearing the way to further negotiations for a settlement.

It is reported, although official confirmation is lacking, that Britain is carrying on diplomatic negotiations for another token payment on June 15, on the understanding that talks for the final settlement will be resumed before any December instalment falls due.

IMPORTANT SUGGESTION

The President's Message to Congress is expected to ask for approval of a settlement with Finland under which all future interest will be waived and the principal amount will become payable over a period of fifty years. A special low rate of interest will be applied retroactively to past payments.

Observers in Washington are discussing the prospects of a similar arrangement with Britain. The British Embassy, however, refuses to comment on the suggestion.—Reuter.

VERDICT AFFORDS RELIEF

(By Telegraph Copyright, Telegraphic Magazine, Ordinance, 1934. Received May 7, 1934 a.m.)

Washington, May 6.
The ruling of the Attorney-General that Great Britain and other countries who have made token payments to the United States, are not to be classified among defaulters under the Johnson Bill has given much relief in official circles.

As the result of Mr. Cummings' ruling, President Roosevelt apparently can deal as he sees fit with the question of the payments by debtors, whose obligations mature again in June and December.

Although the ruling does not commit the Administration to any specific policy regarding future token payments, it is considered highly probable that the entire debt question will be submitted to the next Congress.—United Press.

Private Richard Johnson, of the Lincoln, who was recently court-martialled at Shamshupo for assaulting an N. C. O. and using insubordinate language, was sentenced by the Court to 60 days' detention. The sentence has been promulgated.

UTTERLY FEMININE, THESE SPRING FROCKS

Taffetas Back for Wear on All Occasions, Also the Lovely Lingerie Touches—Clever Designing Makes Peplum Dresses Appear as Two-Piece Costumes

The coat dress (left) of rough black crepe has a softly draped white jabot and a matching pannelled skirt inset that flares gracefully as you walk.

The two-piece dress (below) of grayish mohair has a plain vestee of white pique and matching bands around sleeves and neckline. This model is handsome in taffeta, too.

Crisp and fresh as a spring morning is the brown and white printed frock (right) of roseamer sheer silk. Brown organza schu collar and deep cuffs add the fashionable feminine touch.

This Spring dress (right) of heavy silk crepe epitomizes three important Spring fashion notes—It's navy blue, has a short jacket and a flattering lingerie touch at the neckline. The skirt is straight and form-fitting with one smart kick pleat in the centre of the front. The straw hat, a variation of the popular sailor, has a medium brim and is trimmed with a shining white grosgrain ribbon band. White gloves, navy purse and shoes are other "just right" accessories.

New York.—Spring dresses are as feminine as lavender and old lace. The 1934 girl in her new spring frock has almost as little chance of being mistaken for a 1925 flapper as well as Queen Victoria herself.

Speaking of the great queen, a fabric of her own era has rustled into the fashion picture. Taffeta is back, not only for tea, dinner and evening, but for street and general daytime wear, office included.

And the lingerie neckline dresses! Nothing more feminine than these—wait until you see a pastel crepe frock with an organdie jabot, or a navy blue with wisps of organza or net at throat and wrists. The lingerie touches real-ly make these frocks. And smarter than ever this year. The light sweet little printed frocks are top-trimmed being removable and put by unlined, lightweight woollen coats which don't quite close in front, allowing the dresses to be Blue, of course, is in the Things look like what they show. The windblown theme is aren't—tricks of clever designers prevalent in this category. Rip-lin-earns, no doubt. You see what pling revers, collars that blow-for-ward, jabots of self material that appears to be a two-piece dress. You know that two-piece frocks fly out over coats' lapels—all these are fashionable, so you think no style points make redingotes as pick! And don't forget about more about it. But, suddenly, flatter as a tunic dress on a you discover that a cute little mature figure. Tunics are headliners, too. It printed silk or white pique, it's flattery to nearly everyone. Neutral colours are important. You'll see plenty of grey, beige, off-shade tones, including dusty gote. It may be that, but it's they're right in vogue, especially the newer pleated types. Spring dress colors are as varied as they are handsome. All the pink shades from palest pastel to deep, rich rose tones are used. And then there are greens which borrow from nature herself—leaf greens, grass green and the green of ocean waves on a sunny day—they're luscious! Trimmed with touches of vivid flattery to nearly everyone. Neutral colours are important. You'll see plenty of grey, beige, off-shade tones, including dusty

GLORIFYING
Sagging Chins

By Allela Hart.

Poor posture is one of the chief causes of sagging chin muscles.

Stand in front of a mirror with head and chest up, chin in but not forced downward or strained. The mirror will tell you whether or not you look graceful and if chin muscles are being held up. Try to maintain that position whether you are standing, sitting or walking. If you're uncomfortable, the chances are that you aren't standing correctly. You should be perfectly easy and relaxed.

It is better to sleep without a pillow. If you can't get along without one, get a tiny baby pillow which doesn't prop you up to an almost sitting position, putting a strain on the back of your neck and forcing the head down on the chest, crowding chin muscles. It may be a little difficult for the first few nights, but you'll get used to the idea and find that your sleep is more bene-

RAILWAY STATIONS BOMBED

Austrian Terrorist Acts Continue

Vienna, May 7. Acts of terrorism continue in different parts of Austria, keeping the authorities continuously active.

Bombs were exploded yesterday at two railway stations, considerable damage being done to both buildings.

PERKINS HURT

An unfortunate accident to G. Perkins in the closing stages of the game marred the Champions v. Rest match in connection with the Mamak Tournament on the Marina ground yesterday.

At the time the Police, who were playing under the title of League champions, were one goal in arrears and were making a concerted attack on the Rest goal. The ball came over from the right and Perkins rushed in to take the pass. In so doing he collided with Cross in the goal-mouth and collapsed. He was taken off the field, apparently suffering from slight concussion, and taken to hospital.

There were several changes made in the Rest side from that originally picked. Cross (Signals) appeared between the sticks in place of Moss (C.B.A.), and P. Singh came in at left back to the exclusion of Rhodas (Midway). In the intermediate line Hussain (K.I.T.C.) deputised for A. B. Hanson (St. Andrew's), and in the forward line Collidge moved into the centre, with N. A. E. Mackay (St. Andrew's) taking his place at inside right, while the left flank was composed of J. M. Pinto and A. P. de Souza, to the exclusion of Major Withington and R. Baldwin.

The game was scrappy throughout, with both forward lines weak. Opportunities galore were missed in the circle. The defenders on both sides were called upon time after time and kept their goals clear with sound hitting.

The Police came near to scoring late in the second half, when P. Singh was pulled up for kicking in the goal-mouth and a penalty-bully was awarded. Wass bullied with P. Singh, but the latter managed to deflect the ball round the post.

The Rest netted the only goal of the game in the second half following some neat work on the left by Souza, which culminated in Pinto netting.

In celebration of the 24th anniversary of the succession of H.M. King George V. to the Throne, salutes of 21 guns were fired from H.M.S. Tamar and H.M.S. Caradoc at noon today by the Naval authorities, and at the same time the Army marked the occasion by a similar salute from Blackhead Fort. His Majesty succeeded to the Throne on May 6, 1910, but as yesterday was a Sunday, the salutes were held over until to-day.

Captain's Cup And The Junior Championship

Brigadier G. B. Rowan Hamilton, with a card of 86-11=75, qualified for the May competition in the Captain's Cup over the old course at Fanling during the week-end. There were 41 entries.

Playing over the new course, F. A. Pollock qualified in the same competition, with a score of 86-17=69. There were seven entries.

Playing in the semi-final of the junior section championship of the Happy Valley Golf Club, W. H. Edmonds beat N. Drummond 5 and 4, and T. D. Paton defeated R. G. Wallace 5 and 4.

In the final over 36 holes, Paton beat Edmonds by one up.

BANDITS PILLAGE C.E.R. FREIGHT

Harbin, May 6. Bandits pulled up a section of truck thirteen miles east of Imliepou on the Chinese Eastern Railway and wrecked a westbound freight train.

Immediately after the derailment, the bandits opened a hot fire upon the crew and guards, and when they had been subdued, pillaged the train.

So far the casualties are not known.—Reuter.

REORGANISATION OF THE SURETE GENERALE

Paris, May 6. The Cabinet this morning adopted the Minister of the Interior's plan for the reorganisation of the Surete Generale (the French Scotland Yard).

This decision is a sequel to the Stavisky scandal revelations.

The decree enforcing the reorganisation plan was later signed by President Lebrun.—Reuter.

To-morrow's Rotary Club tiffin will be held in the Hongkong Hotel. Mr. M. A. Cooper, n. cost, will speak on "The Children of Hongkong."

amateur all-rounder who did so well last season, will also be free to play more regularly. I. A. R. Peebles and R. W. V. Robins expect to be available on many occasions.

NORTHAMPTONSHIRE

Northamptonshire's gate receipts increased by £700 last season, but there was a loss on the year's working of £1,488. By special efforts this was reduced to £559, and the decline in membership, which had been progressive for some years, was checked.

The county will have eight Saturday starts in 13 home games, and these should be of material assistance financially.

W. C. Brown will again be captain, and two young players, L. Cullen (a South African) and D. Brooks will be the newcomers.

NOTTINGHAMSHIRE'S LOSS.

The county lost £766 last year and the total indebtedness is now £1,262. Match receipts were down by £546, and subscriptions by £145.

The number of season tickets sold has been above the average for March.

SOMERSET'S OVERDRAFT.

Somerset's bank overdraft of nearly £2,000 has been reduced slightly. R. A. Ingle will again captain the side and other amateurs will be available, although J. C. White will play only occasionally.

The players report on April 9 and a trial game for youngsters will be staged on May 1.

SUSSEX FINANCES.

Sussex finished second in the championship last summer, but they had a disappointing year financially, nearly £700 being lost. It is practically certain that there will be an increase in membership this season. Whist drives and dances, run throughout the county during the winter months have met with splendid response.

Altogether, Sussex's financial outlook is distinctly encouraging.

Owing to business reasons,

R. S. G. Scott is unable to captain the team, and another Oxford blue—Alan Melville—will take his place.

SURREY IMPROVE.

Surrey suffered last year because D. R. Jardine was unable to devote his whole attention to the game. P. G. H. Fender and occasionally M. J. C. Allom acted in his stead, but though all are excellent leaders the continual changes were not conducive to settled policy. E. T. R. Holmes' appointment for the current year should eliminate this handicap.

A profit of £1,000 was made on last season and the club have been able to spend over £4,000 out of their reserves in completing the ten-foot wall which now surrounds the Oval. Every seat on the ground has been provided with a back and an open stand seating 1,000 will be available for county matches without extra charge.

WARWICKSHIRE'S RECEIPTS.

Warwickshire prospects are not alluring, and yet these who have inside knowledge are not pessimistic. The deficit last year was £1,581, against £2,250 in the previous season. The receipts in 1933 were £500 more than in the previous year.

It is anticipated that R. E. S. Wyatt will be invited again to captain the side, with the Rev. J. H. Parsons, now Vicar of Hodnet, Shropshire, as his deputy.

WORCESTERSHIRE.

Worcestershire are looking ahead with confidence, although last year's balance sheet showed a loss on the season of £289. An appeal made by Major M. F. S. Jewell, a former captain, for new members has met with considerable success.

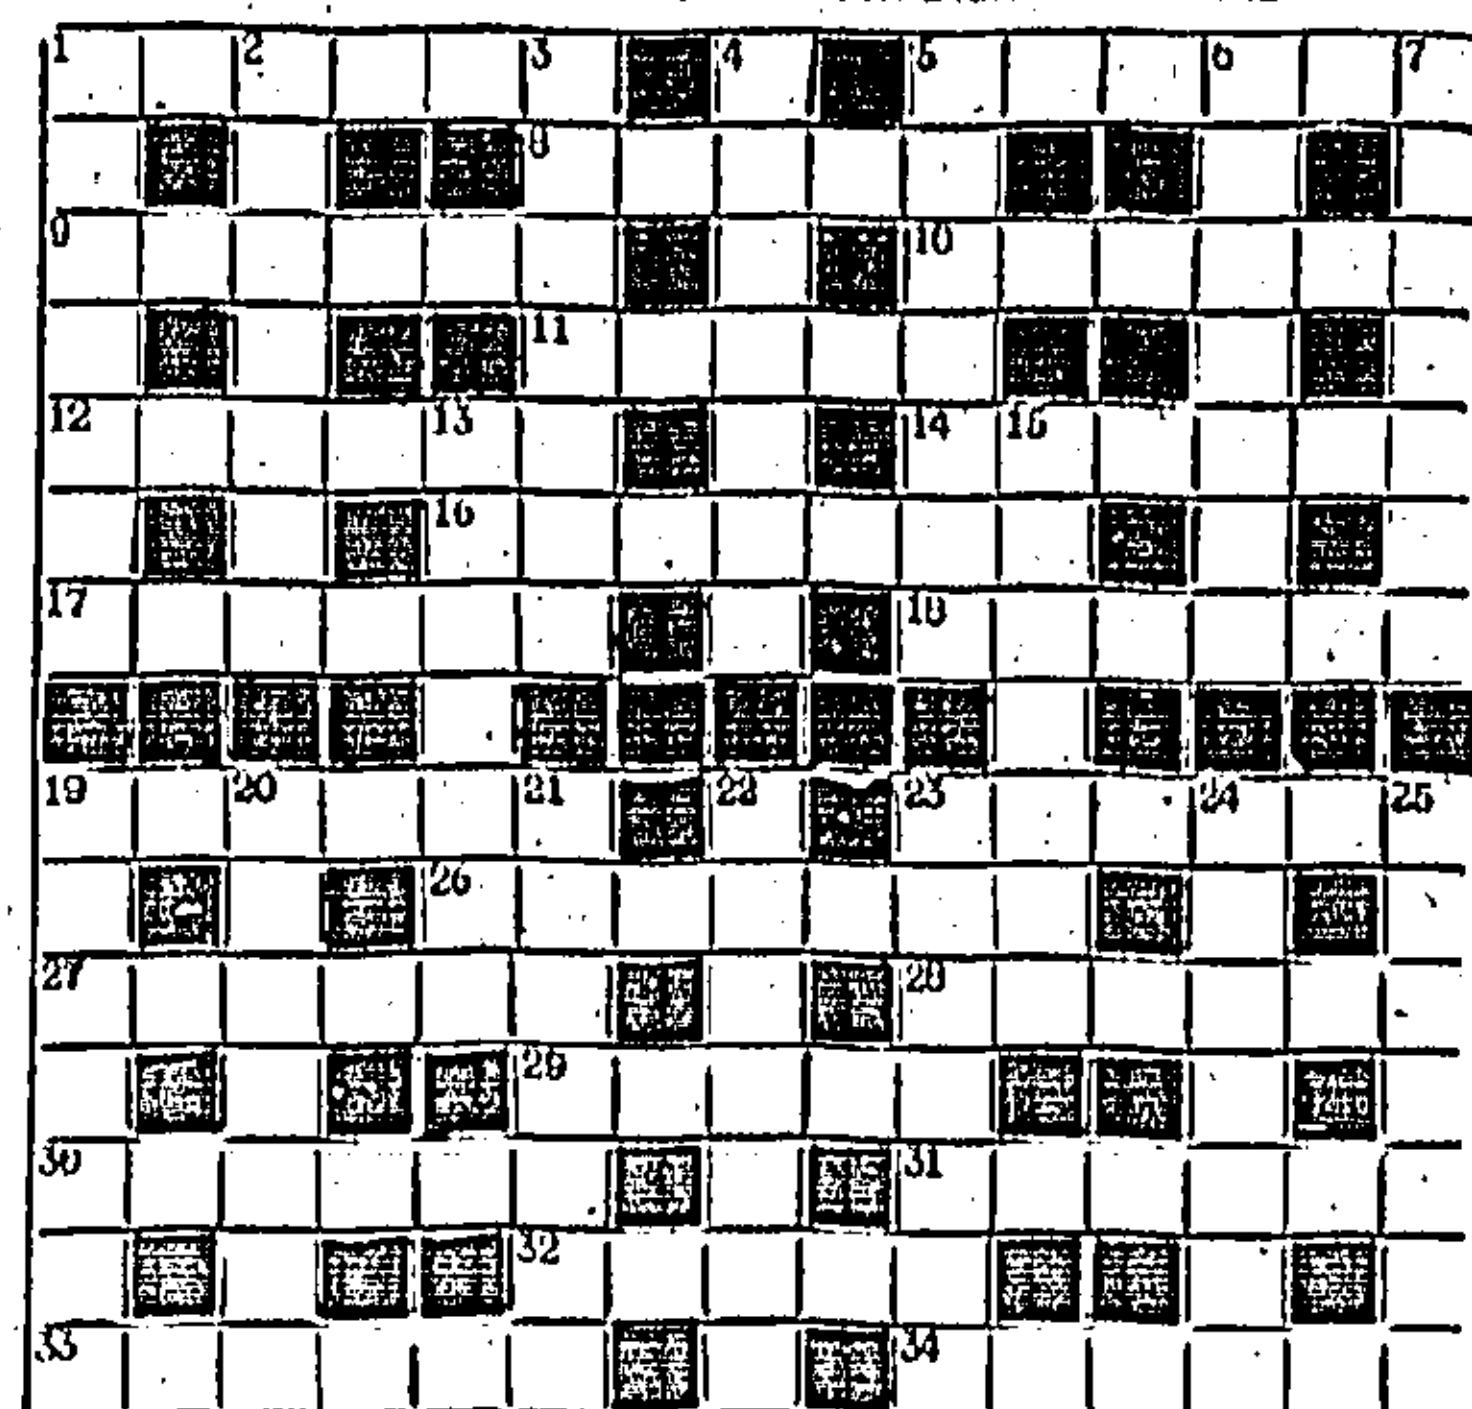

C. F. Walters will again captain the eleven.

One new-comer is Frank Varne, son of a former Australian Test cricketer, who has himself played for Victoria in interstate matches at intervals since 1927. He is a right-hand, slow spin bowler.

YORKSHIRE FUND.

Yorkshire increased their membership last season for the first time since 1926, and it is now about 6,000. The gate receipts of £13,092 were also an increase.

WORLD LABOUR

It is sometimes stated that the work of the International Labour Organisation of the League of Nations is a farce: that its conventions on industrial conditions, though ratified by many countries, remain a dead letter. This is far from the truth. The American "observers" who went officially to last year's International Labour Conference at Geneva, were so impressed by what they chose to call the "policing" work that they remark in the report which they have rendered to the Senate that the work is effectively and frankly done and offers an example of effective international co-operation. They also go on to recommend that the United States should become a member of the Organisation at the earliest possible moment. In the meantime the custom of sending official observers to Conference should be continued. This "policing" work is carried out in the main by a special committee. Under the terms of the Treaty of Versailles, by which the International Labour Organisation was set up, each country that ratifies an International Labour Convention has to make an annual report on the way in which it is working in that country. These reports are gone through point by point and questions are asked if there is any doubt in the minds of the members of the Committee. Having sorted out the points on which further information is needed, they send up their comments to the Conference itself which meets a few weeks afterwards—this year in June. The Conference then decides what is to be done. In point of fact, the publicity which is given to shortcomings and the quite natural dislike of nations being shown up in bad administration has succeeded hitherto in preventing any more drastic steps being taken. The Peace Treaty does, in fact, lay down a complete procedure to be adopted against a country that defaults on its obligations. It culminates in the application of "economic measures"—which are carefully left undefined. But it is generally understood that such measures would approximate to those which are envisaged under Article 16 of the Covenant of the League of Nations which lays down what is to be done to a country that goes to war in defiance of the League. The

NOTES OF THE DAY

DEBTS AND TARIFFS

Anyone who expected to see Congress take the disappearance of war debts lying down, without a murmur or a gesture, does not know his Congress. The fact that European countries are not making any provision in their new budgets for debt payments and that the American budget does not even pretend to list debt payments as an expected income, have not gone unnoticed by the legislators on Capitol Hill. And so far were they from letting the matter slide that the Johnson Bill lumping all together, those who made token payments and those who did not, as defaulters to be placed upon a financial black list, secured an easy passage. In addition, Senator Borah persistently resisted every proposal to give President Roosevelt power to negotiate reciprocal tariff agreements with European and other countries, declaring that war debts and not tariff cuts by America should be America's first concern in any bargaining.

TRANSFER RIDDLE

The first trouble with the Borah plan is that it is difficult to make the war debts count. It may be that the debtors are willing to exchange something valuable in the way of open markets for the claims which the United States holds against them. But if Congress is to be realistic about the debts—and the make-them-pay chorus has always insisted on realism—it might as well recognise that five cents on the dollar is the present value. And even assuming that to induce the United States to reduce or clear the slate of debts which are already in default, certain European countries were willing to punch holes in their tariff walls to admit American goods—would not the difficulty of making the transfer payment remain? If the debtors cannot now make transfers to pay their debts, what good will it do to increase their debt? That is the second trouble with this plan. It was the difficulty when President Hoover proposed it in his 1932 campaign speech at Des Moines, and it is still the difficulty.

ROOSEVELT PLAN

In addition to the war debts, the United States has sent to Europe since the war about $10,000,000,000 worth of goods, which have not been paid for. This sum is usually referred to as loans, but it was goods rather than money which actually crossed the water. What is to be gained now by prying holes in European tariff walls so that more goods can be deposited on the eastern shores of the Atlantic unless provision is made for transferring—and accepting—payment? That is the key to the Roosevelt plan. For it is based on reciprocal agreements by which tariff barriers would be lowered in order to accept payment for exports. It would leave the question of debts in abeyance. That may not be necessary. If the debtors really wish to pay they may find ways to get around the transfer difficulty, real as it is. For instance, France could afford to ship some goods and Britain could pay something with American securities held in Britain. But at this late day such efforts are unlikely; the debts have drifted until to-day, with reparations receipts lost to Britain and France, Britain still remembers the famous Balfour Note and disinclination to pay is just as great as inability.

WRONG GESTURE

The United States might facilitate debt collection by lowering tariffs and more freely admitting debtors' goods; she cannot get herself paid by inducing debtors to lower their barriers and accept more of her goods. That would be not merely a gesture but a gesture in the wrong direction.

GANGSTER BRAINS

Most newspaper readers, probably, would like to know more about Fred Goetz, the gangster who was "taken for a ride" recently after several years of activity as one of Chicago's worst gunmen. Goetz did not come from one of those slum regions that breed most criminals. He was a man of a good family, college graduate, an honour student at a great university, and an athlete of considerable prominence. All in all, he was emphatically not the kind of material of which gangsters are made. Yet he plunged into the underworld, became a hired killer, served as counsellor to the notorious Fred Burke—and died at last, gangland-style, in a ditch, full of bullets. A strange and tragic story must lie behind it.

"sanctions" as they are called, include the severance of all trade or financial, commercial or personal intercourse. In other words, complete isolation, which, since no State is or can be completely independent of its neighbours, should, if enforced, have the desired effect.

"WALKING DYNAMITE" WARNS AMERICA

By WILLIAM PHILIP SIMMS

Uncle Sam's proclivity to play the "bully" in the Pacific, and the tendency of the United States, Russia and China to interplay, are imperilling peace of the Far East.

Such, in a paragraph, is the theme of one of the most outspoken utterances yet made by fiery Yosuke Matsuoka, who, by his frank speech as Japan's chief delegate to Geneva during the Manchurian "war," earned for himself the picturesque sobriquet of "walking dynamite."

"I am afraid," he told me in the course of an evening at his handsome foreign-style home here, "that there are misunderstandings on both sides of the Pacific. Let me speak frankly."

"On our side, Japan is irritated over America's insistence on playing the big boy's part in the East. At least, so it appears to us. We refuse to be bullied and resent any attempt at it."

WANTS RESPECT IN TURN.

"We have consistently respected your rights and interests in your sphere of influence and never once challenged the Monroe Doctrine. I want to ask you to respect Japan's Monroe Doctrine of the East."

"When I say Monroe Doctrine, I refer to the doctrine as expounded by Mr. Hughes and Mr. Kellogg, two of your former secretaries of state, who gave us to understand that the Monroe Doctrine, in the final analysis, rests upon the right of self-defence."

"Should America recognize and respect Japan's Monroe Doctrine of the East, many misgivings on our part will disappear."

"I trust America's aim is peace on the Pacific. But your thesis of peace forbids Japan even a sporting chance in fighting America."

CITES PERIL TO PEACE.

"No powerful and self-respecting nation, however, would ever consent to be bound hand and foot by others. Just reverse the case: Would America allow herself to be so bound by Japan? I know the answer would be a definite 'No.' America tries to impose upon us an inferior naval ratio and Japan resists it. Herein lurks a danger to peace."

"To avert this danger, America must revise her policy and must more clearly show an attitude of co-operation with Japan and Great Britain for maintenance of tranquillity in the Pacific."

"Why must you act in such way as to impress upon others that you alone are to be trusted in the police duty of the Pacific?" I had asked Mr. Matsuoka for his views on the 1935 naval conference. He did not hesitate to state them. There is nothing of the "inscrutable" Oriental of fiction about this twentieth century Samurai. Educated in America, his mind works like an Occidental's.

He is accustomed to speaking his mind whether to his own people, to the staid dignitaries of the League of Nations, or to foreign-

PARLEY MUST SUCCEED.

"The 1935 conference," he continued earnestly, "must succeed. We can not afford to let it fail. If the conference ends in rupture, it will spell disaster for the world."

"But if we wish to insure its success, it is high time for us to set about improving the feelings and sentiments in both Japan and America toward each other."

"This is a most urgent necessity. It is the first and fundamental condition of success."

Nor should this be difficult, in Mr. Matsuoka's opinion. There is no material cause of conflict between the two countries.

But, he warned, "mere absence of apparent cause for conflict does not, in itself, constitute a sufficient guarantee for peace."

America, he argued, is vastly richer than Japan. So she can afford to build many ships while Japan can ill afford to do so.

Thus, he reasoned, "If America truly looks for peace, she should stop building and Japan would do the same."

PARITY IS PRINCIPLE.

"If, however, America continues to build—thereby incidentally betraying a suspicious mentality toward us—we will also build to the last cent of our purse."

"What about your contention for parity?" I asked.

"The Japanese contention for parity with America and Great Britain," he replied, "is a matter of principle. It should not alarm you at all."

"Have we not the right to claim it? Reverse the case again, and what would you say?"

"Do you foresee trouble with Russia?"

"There are some questions to be settled between Japan and the Soviet Union. I feel sure, however, that they are amenable to peaceful solution."

DANGER IN SOVIET SCHEMES.

"On the issue, however, of the subversive activities of the Soviet government in organizing a universal revolution of the proletariat and sovietizing China, Japan can permit of no compromise."

"Recently some of the Russians—taking advantage of American recognition—seem to be scheming to utilize America as a counterweight to Japan. But I believe your people have too much common sense to be made a cat's paw. Should America, however, allow herself by any chance to be so involved as to create an unfortunate appearance of aligning herself with Russia against Japan, it will only aggravate the situation in the Far East and prejudice the peaceful settlement of questions between Japan and the U.S.S.R."

CHINA'S CHAOS IS MENACE.

"What of Japan's China policy?" "Much as I regret it, I am now obliged to say that, if left alone, China will continue to sink deeper and deeper into the mire of chaos and confusion."

"This hopeless condition constitutes a serious menace to Japan."

The Very Idea!

My Interview With SYRUP APHIS
By George

I WAS the only journalist admitted to Syrup Aphis' presence when she docked (I mean her boat docked) at Kowloon. I found her already in the cleaner's hands (the boat, of course, I mean), but Syrup was still in her stateroom. Her secretary, Mr. Terrapin, had been sorting out her marriage certificates and had just tied them up in a neat bundle. Five of them there were. "A comedy in five reels," said Aphis laughing ("cahmehdy" she called it) as she held out her lovely manicured hand. "And say, I guess I've got more out of it than most stars. Five lots of experience, and three of alimony! Two of them haven't paid up, the tightwads: men are a lousy lot."

"I wonder, Miss Aphis," said I, "if you could tell me something of your plans?"

"Well," said Syrup, "I reckon it's up to a girl to see something of the world specially if she has admirers in every country who look up to her for a lead, same as they do to me since I played the nua in the Empty Cloister, as you'd know if you read my fan-mail; how many letters were there last week, Mr. Terrapin? Eighteen thousand, and I sent off over six hundred photographs; give Mr. George a photograph and sign it for him."

"So I reckon they ought to have a chance of seeing me in places like Hongkong, Paris, France and Berlin and Vienna and all other towns, what's-it-called, Rome, and Monte Carlo and Biarritz, because a girl doesn't know, till she's in a position like mine, how much good she can do in the world, just by shedding an influence and answering her fan-mail and so on and so forth. And then I've to see my lawyers in Paris, France, about some alimony from my second husband, a Marquis, he said he was, and plumb crazy about me, though Marquises are getting so common in the States now I was a doggone fool to be taken in by that. Well good-bye; it's been real nice to meet you and hear your point of view and I'm so glad your appointment what I'm trying to do to make the world a happier place for others. Ask Mr. Terrapin if there's anything else you wanna know." And in a flick of her lovely eyelashes she was gone.

"Cute lil thing," muttered Terrapin, as the door closed behind her. I offered him a rather poor cigar.

Hymn of Praise

[To be chanted by all, kneeling, with their faces turned towards Downing-street.]

Let us praise Mr. Chamberlain. For the year has closed with a surplus.

Let us praise Mr. Chamberlain. The greatest Chancellor since*** [Insert here name of favourite Chancellor. Peel, Gladstone, Churchill, Snowden, are a few well-favoured suggestions.]

Let us praise the taxpayers Who have made this surplus possible; Especially those who have paid.

Let us praise his Majesty's Ministers Who have set so splendid an example; Four thousand a year for making speeches—Unintelligible, drivelling, speeches—

Is at any rate cheaper than five. Let us praise the unemployed Who so patriotically have insisted On helping to shoulder the burden. Let us praise the unemployed Who have forgone both work and maintenance.

Let us praise the Government For whom we have made these sacrifices; The Government which rallied the nation In its hour of crisis.

[For we know that there was a crisis; We were told so over the radio.]

Let us praise the Government Let us praise Mr. MacDonald; "Ah, my friends, the whole thing is a muddle."

"We must muddle through as best we can." We have muddled through as best we could; Let us be thankful.

BIG HOSPITAL
PLANNEDSHANGHAI APPEAL TO HONGKONG

At a meeting of the Chinese Medical Association (Hongkong Branch) held on Saturday night, with Dr. S. W. Phoon, the President, in the chair, Dr. T. P. Wu delivered a most interesting address. Dr. Wu is officially delegated by the Board of Directors of the Shanghai Medical Centre to proceed to the South Sea Islands and Hongkong in the interest of Dr. Sun's Memorial Hospital and the Ching Chong Tuberculosis Sanatorium.

In the course of his address, Dr. Wu said:—For the last three years in China, I have been associating myself with tuberculosis work. I can never over-emphasize the seriousness of this problem. It is said that the death-rate of tuberculosis in China is 300 a year per 100,000 of population; this however, is I think an under-estimating statement. But granted that that is the correct figure, the loss of nearly 1,500,000 lives (most of them are young and promising ones) a year is a tragedy to any country, not to mention the very great cost of treating and looking after this illness, which as we know runs a very chronic (tedious) course.

LACK OF HOSPITALS.

Many factors have been blamed for the prevalence of this disease in China, such as bad economic condition, bad habit of eating and spitting, fondness of living in crowds and of indoor amusements and shyness to consult doctors when so affected as Tuberculosis is regarded as an unbecoming disease. All these factors are without doubt very important and therefore social workers as well as public health educators are greatly needed.

There is one more very important factor, however, which I have not mentioned, that is the lack of hospitals and sanatoria for treatment and education of patients and above all for isolating them in order to prevent the susceptible juvenile members of the families from being infected. The Shanghai Medical Centre has sent me here to appeal to you to help it in its most important duties to supply the medical needs and to improve the medical standard by building of a modern medical college and an up-to-date hospital and tuberculosis sanatorium.

HOSPITAL SCHEME.

Last year the Rockefeller Foundation very generously donated its very spacious land in the heart of Shanghai, known as the "Pioneer Field," with an area of 150 mow and worth not less than 5,000,000 dollars. On this ground, our National Government is pledged to erect great buildings to house the National Medical College of Shanghai and the Shanghai Medical Centre is pledged to raise 1,000,000 dollars for building a most up-to-date model hospital to be known as Dr. Sun's Memorial Hospital, which has the following aims:—

I. To supply the need of hospital accommodations for Chinese of all classes, especially of the middle and poorer, which constitutes the backbone of the country.

II. To give the best medical training to Chinese students to whom the future of scientific medicine in China may be safely entrusted.

III. To encourage international medical co-operation and to make use of the vast available materials of such a great cosmopolitan city for medical research so that we may hope to be able to contribute to the progress of medicine.

For this hospital, the Shanghai Medical Centre has so far raised 50% of the amount, that is, 500,000 dollars (of which Messrs. E. D. Sassoon & Co. contributed 58,000 taels). The Centre could have raised the full amount in Shanghai, had it not been for the fact that the Shanghai public had not only contributed to this fund, but also to the funds of the Leprosarium and Mental Hospital there. Hence I am to appeal to you.

SANATORIUM GIFT.

At about the same time, Mr. Yih Tze Heng, realizing the great need of a Tuberculosis Sanatorium, very generously donated to the Centre his most famous "Yih Gardens" for that purpose. This garden has an area of about 85 mow, containing flowers and trees of all seasons. It is situated in Kiangwan, away from the noise and smoke of the City of Shanghai. During the last Tuberculosis Conference in Shanghai, many a

HOSPITALUSE OF TEMPLE FUNDS
SUGGESTED

Yesterday afternoon a large crowd, including the Commissioner, the Secretary, and Dr. Lim Ek-quee, of the St. John Ambulance Brigade, and many village elders, gathered at Cheung Chau to welcome Mr. Aw Boon-haw, proprietor of the Tiger Medical Hall and noted benefactor, who paid a visit to the island to see the construction work of the modern hospital of which he is the donor.

On landing at the pier, Mr. Aw Boon-haw was warmly welcomed, and was conducted to the hill where the building of the new hospital is in progress. Afterwards the Cheung Chau elders gave an "home" to Mr. Aw Boon-haw, who in the course of a short speech said:—It has given me much pleasure to meet all of you here and I am grateful for the reception you are giving me to-day. It is now two years since I visited this place and was shown the medical work of the St. John Ambulance Brigade. In spite of the fact that this island was inhabited by a population of about 30,000, including the fishing folk, there was no hospital of any kind, except the improvised one occupying the business centre operated by the St. John Ambulance Brigade. The work of the St. John Ambulance Brigade was indeed much to be admired and deserved hearty support. Now to my gratification the new hospital which has been a long-felt want is nearing completion and I am under the impression that the St. John Ambulance Brigade will find this new building more satisfactory and more efficient to carry out their work of humanity.

After Mr. Aw Boon-haw's speech there was a general discussion among the gathering as to the maintenance fund of the hospital, and a suggestion was advanced that the Temple Fund, which amounts to about $1,000, annually, and which is contributed by the people of Cheung Chau, should be kept for the maintenance of the hospital. This suggestion was warmly endorsed by all present.

At present we are using the few available buildings in the garrison for patients and it will interest the people of Hongkong that even now there are already many Cantonese patients making use of the place. In this garden, the Centre is raising 100,000 dollars for the erection of a 160-bed sanatorium. We hope to make this sanatorium equal to any in Europe with the most up-to-date equipments for modern treatments by specialists. With its most beautiful and spacious ground, most suitable for prescribing gradual exercise, patients will have not only profitable but also enjoyable sojourn there.

Due to the proximity of Hongkong, with the erection of this fine institution, the people here will surely share the benefit. On this ground, on behalf of the Shanghai Medical Centre, I appeal to the people of Hongkong to actively and generously help this work. I am confident that my appeal will bear fruit and also for the fact that you all know well that though charity begins at home, it never ends there.

The meeting agreed that the branch association act on behalf of the Centre to receive contributions. Donations are earnestly invited by Dr. K. D. Ling, Hon. Secretary, Chinese Medical Association (Hongkong). Donations should be marked either for Dr. Sun's Memorial Hospital or for the Ching Chong Tuberculosis Sanatorium.

DAY BY DAY NEWS IN BRIEF

HE WHO SHOULD TEACH MEN TO DIE, WOULD AT THE SAME TIME TEACH THEM TO LIVE.—Montaigne.

The annual meeting of the Hongkong Auxiliary of the British and Foreign Bible Society will be held on May 25 at the Helena May Institute at 5.30 p.m. It is hoped that the Bishop of Victoria and the Rev. H.O.T. Burkwill will be the speakers. Tea will be served at 4.45 p.m.

The consecration of the Chapel in the basement of the Bishop's House will take place on Thursday, May 10, at 6 p.m. and not at 5.30 p.m. as was originally intimated. It is intended that the Chapel should serve not only as a centre for Dr. Reichelt's work but also as a church for the Scandinavian community.

The case in which two Shanghai men, Shiu Ah-choi, a shoemaker, and Liu Fu-ming, a shop clerk, are charged with assaulting Chiu Yan-chang, a tailor, at No. 23 Hollywood Road, was fixed for hearing on Thursday afternoon, by Mr. Macfadyen in the Central Police Court this morning. Mr. C. H. Lim, instructed by Messrs. Russ and Co., is appearing for the defence.

A STRANGE
TRUCK?

COURT SAYS "NO"

When is a perambulator not a perambulator?

According to the police, it is not when it is used for carrying goods. The Kowloon Magistrate (Mr. E. I. Wynne-Jones) held however, that a perambulator remains so as long as it is capable of holding a baby comfortably.

The question arose following the arrest of an Indian, Parmanand Tolani, in Kai Tak Road yesterday for "driving an unlicensed truck." Inspector Andrews this morning, stated that defendant was pushing a perambulator containing quantities of silk for sale.

It was not a case of damage to the road, said Inspector Andrews, because no more damage was done by the perambulator than there would with two healthy babies in it. The case had been taken into simply as a test case.

His Worship observed that a truck in the Ordinance was described as a vehicle "constructed or adapted for the conveyance of goods."

Sergeant Cunningham, who made the arrest, said that the perambulator, loaded with silk, could not have held a baby.

His Worship:—Perhaps not, but if you took the silk out, it could have done so.

His Worship went on to say that unless defendant had constructed shelves or something of that sort, it was still a perambulator. Defendant must be discharged.

His Worship added that he remembered seeing women at Home using perambulators to carry things to and from market, and sometimes both baby and goods.

Inspector Andrews:—Yes. Some even remove their household furniture in perambulators! (Laughter.)

GAMBLING IN THE MARKETARREST OF FOURTEEN
PARTICIPANTS

A large butcher's table, the top of which was spread with newspapers, was used by pork dealers for the purpose of gambling on the first floor of the Western Market on Saturday morning, and a raid conducted by Detective Sergeant T. J. Hemsley resulted in the arrest of fourteen Chinese.

Lo Kong, and Lei Chung, both pork dealers, were charged before Mr. Macfadyen in the Central Police Court this morning with being the keepers of a common gaming house at the market.

Seven gamblers were absent and their bail of $3 each was exonerated.

On conviction, Lo Kong was fined $50, while Lei Chung was fined $30. The remainder of the defendants were fined $3 each, while $5.80, picked up from the table, was added to the funds of the Poor Box.

Sergeant Hemsley said the table was too heavy to bring into Court.

Wan Hung, 35, unemployed, who pleaded guilty to stealing an iron shackle from the O. S. K. steamer Canton Maru was cautioned by Mr. Macfadyen in the Central Police Court this morning. Sub-Inspector Dredge said defendant went aboard the ship and picked the shackle up from one of the holds. The ship had sailed since.

CHEKWAN TREK
ENDEDPILGRIMAGE OVER FOR YEAR

Yesterday saw the end of a great rush to Chekwang, where the annual festival in connection with the Tin Hau shrine had been held for a week, drawing thousands of Buddhist pilgrims and providing big business for steamboat companies.

Chekwang, in Chinese territory, is about two hours' steam from Hongkong, with the featureless appearance of a Chinese village surrounded by monotonous rice-fields. Once a year, however, unusual prosperity visits it on account of a joss-temple dedicated to the especial worship of Tin Hau, Goddess of Good Crops, Good Fortune, and a host of other graces in joss-love.

Between 6 and 8 o'clock every morning, therefore, for the past week, the waterfront here had presented the lively spectacle of thousands of pilgrims boarding a number of steamers specially diverted from the Macao and Canton runs for a business unaffected by railway competition or by rate-cutting. As many as ten vessels could be seen leaving at one time for an all-day excursion, their interiors chock-a-block with excited pilgrims with a merry noise being raised by the beating of brass instruments and a firing of crackers.

Chekwang shrine is credited with a multitude of miracles and virtues, and the number of claims is being continuously added to yearly. However, as a good business is done all-round, including the syndicates formed for the running of fan-tan schools on board, no-one feels disposed strenuously to deny these allegations, which, as likely as not, are accepted as gospel truth by the hundreds of thousands who every year make the trip to this Mecca from the Colony.

OPIUM HIDDEN IN CHARCOALHEAVY FINES ON SMUGGLER

Charged before Mr. Hamilton, at the Central Magistracy this morning, with possession of 1,800 tuels of raw opium, dealing in opium and exporting, Lo Hing was fined $5,000, or twelve months' imprisonment on the first charge, and $2,000 or twelve months' imprisonment each on the other two charges, the sentences to run consecutively. His fines altogether amounted to $9,000.

Revenue Officer Grinnitt said defendant was a charcoal dealer and came to Hongkong about four months ago from Kwangsi. He admitted that he had purchased the charcoal in Wuchow and brought it down to Hongkong. The opium was concealed in wooden containers hidden in the charcoal. Defendant also said that someone had told him he could make money by dealing in opium, and he thought he would try it. The premises where defendant lived were later searched, and wooden containers, similar to those containing the opium, were found in his broken state.

Mr. Grinnitt said they were not asking for the confiscation of the junk because it belonged to a respectable woman, and had been hired by the defendant for conveying the charcoal.

NO PASSPORT
VISARUSSIAN TO BE EXPULSED

A Russian, Alexis George Prelovesky, was charged before Mr. Hamilton, at the Central Magistracy this morning, with having entered the Colony without a valid passport, and with vagrancy.

Detective-Sergeant Mottram said defendant's passport did not bear a visa. Defendant gave himself up at the Central Police Station on Friday last. He said he had come down from the North with a friend and could not find any work. His friend had got away with his bag and $25.

Sergeant Mottram added that he had been instructed to ask for an expulsion order against defendant, and that he be committed to the House of Detention until arrangements could be made for him to be sent to Shanghai.

Mr. Hamilton accordingly made out an expulsion order to date from the day of his discharge from the House of Detention on May 12.

Defendant said a man had stolen the property and put it in his stall. He asked for a part of the proceeds, but as this was refused, he took the property and ran off with it. Sub-Inspector Fender said defendant first said his wife gave him the property before she left for the country, but later he admitted it was stolen at Chek Wan in Chinese territory.

Stoeffen America's New Tennis "Hope"

ACCLAIMED AS COUNTRY'S MOST PROMISING PLAYER.

New York. America has a new tennis hero—a new hope for the Davis Cup team.

He is Lester Stoeffen, the lanky Californian who sprang into the limelight with a vengeance here recently by blasting Gregory Mangin of the indoor courts in the finals of the National Indoor Tennis Championships, unseating him from the throne which he had held for two years.

It was Stoeffen who, in the semi-finals of last year's national singles championships at Forest Hills, fell before the withering attack of Fred Perry, of England, an attack which carried Perry through to a brilliant victory over Jack Crawford of Australia, and gave Great Britain the American single title for the first time in years.

By virtue of Stoeffen's great showing against Mangin, in which he demonstrated beyond all doubt that he is a greatly improved player in all phases of the game since he met Perry he is considered certain to be picked for the Davis Cup team this year.

Stoeffen who is taller than any man in the tennis world, either Professional or Amateur, is as keen as mustard to "make" the team this year. In his own words, it is "The Davis Cup Team or bust" for him. He has mapped out for himself a strenuous tennis programme for the next several weeks and will compete in various championships elsewhere with the view of getting himself into the best possible shape should he be named for the Davis Cup match against Canada

The L.T.A. Tennis Tournament

MORE ENTRIES NEEDED

Tennis players are not giving the 25th anniversary open invitation tennis tournament, organised by the L.T.A., the support anticipated and desired, and unless further entries are received by Wednesday, it is doubtful whether the tournament will materialise. Present entries include the Rumbhah cousins and Paul Kong in the men's singles, but the remainder of the events require much better support, especially the men's doubles and ladies' singles.

It is to be sincerely hoped that this will be forthcoming so that the tournament, which has been arranged to mark the 25th anniversary of organised tennis in the Colony, can be conducted. Entries close on Wednesday, April 9, at 4.30 p.m., and intending competitors should send in their forms to Mr. D. S. Green, Messrs. Dunlop Rubber Co. (China) Ltd., "Morning Post" Building, accompanied by the entrance fees, which are $4 per event per player.

Belgium, Germany, and France. On May 24, a game between the United States and Mexico will be played here.

at Wilmington, Delaware, in May. In his match against Perry, the Californian was monotonously bad with his backhand shots. One after another they went straight into the net.

But it was a different Stoeffen against Mangin. In each stroke he was a champion. His backhanders functioned well, and his whip-lash service had the audience, the largest ever to witness the national indoor singles championship final, literally gasping. Prior to defeating Mangin he turned back Frank Shields in the semi-final with a dazzling display of tennis—and Shields is rated as one of the next American Davis Cup players.

Chinese And F.A. Teams In Battle Royal

FOR THE GOVERNOR'S CUP

LOSERS A LITTLE BIT UNLUCKY

WING COMBINATIONS PLAY IMPORTANT PART

(By "The Pilgrim")

No more thrilling football contest than that by which the Hongkong Football Association defeated the China Amateur Athletic in the Governor's Cup Final at Happy Valley on Saturday has been served up to the fans this season.

Playing goal for goal in a dour duel beneath a blazing sun and before a capacity-filled ground, the two teams were three-all when the final whistle sounded and it was only a swerving shot which beat Wong Wing in the extra twenty minutes played, which settled the issue.

Right up to the last moment the Chinese looked certain to equalise but throughout the game, the Football Association's goal seemed to bear a charmed life.

As predicted in the Telegraph, fast wingers decided the day and the crowd was treated to many thrilling runs on up the sideline from which most of the scores were made.

E. Strange, playing at centre-forward found the personality of the wings too powerful for him to co-ordinate but they functioned splendidly separately.

STRANGE AT WING.

Later, but not soon enough, Strange went to the right wing position and allowed the Gosano brothers to fill in the centre but had this policy been adopted when it was first self-evident—at half-time—there would have been no need to play extra time.

Lee Wai-long was the deadliest man on the field. For the first half he concentrated on putting the other inside men through but when they failed to notch the scores he changed his methods in the second half and though shadowed closely, scored all China's goals. Each was a grand effort and secured against tremendous difficulties.

From the kickoff the Association's left wing was in action but Blake was not able to centre well and the ball went up the field to call Morrison and Mullane into action. It was soon evident that the Association's defence was on top of its form. Blake forced a corner and Lee initiated a movement from which Cord had to save.

The Gosano brothers were playing effectively together and A. V. Gosano put through Strange in a goal-getting movement which was nullified by off-side.

A. V. Gosano who was fouled took an ineffective free kick.

CLEVER GOSANOS.

Lee then got the ball and trickily put it through but off-side also blocked this movement. China's right wing sent in a high testing shot which Cord dealt with but the Chinese continued to press.

Morrison temporarily incapacitated himself with a hard tackle.

Again A. V. Gosano cleverly beat his man and sent through a pass which Strange could not catch to convert. Podmore sent Blake away but the speedy winger out-paced Lee and centred to a watchful goalkeeper. Bernie centred twice the last one finding Blake's head but the effort was held. The ball went from head to head up the field in a Chinese attack.

FIRST GOAL.

A not too well planned move found the Association massed round the China goal and Strange booted the ball past to net an inauspicious first goal.

Mullane and Morrison were pressed heavily and Cord's knee appeared to fail him at a critical time. Then Ridley brought relief with a pass to Blake and the winger took the ball to the goal mouth where he tripped over the keeper.

It appeared that the goalkeeper held his legs but a corner was ordered there also being some uncertainly as to whether Blake was on-side.

The Chinese defence remained admirably firm and their half-line functioned smoothly. Blake centred a ground shot and after everyone else had missed it, Bernie Gosano put it over the bar much to his own chagrin.

Ridley was fouled and Podmore varied the practice of shooting over the bar by puncturing a hole in the surrounding enclosure as well.

ROBERTSON SOUND.

Robertson was playing a conscientious game and was dealing effectively with his speedy winger while also playing as third back.

Cord saved well a blinding five yards shot which should have been a goal. Lee had started the movement and he followed up with a header which Cord also held.

A. V. Gosano had a good chance to go through but he preferred to give to Blake and muffed the pass. Tso Kwa-sheung gave to Lee who passed to the unmarked Li Tse-wa but as he took the shot Mullane blocked in the nick of time.

Bernie played the ball between his brother and the goalkeeper and the latter won the race by a split second.

Then the China right wing gave the spectators some hair-raising thrills with continual dropping centres in the Association's goalmouth.

CHINA PRESSING.

So far, this was China's most inspired spell and only the demon of fortune had prevented them from scoring.

Strange was running through but he missed the area by a mile and was beaten by the keeper.

Bernie took the ball up and centred but Strange went wide with his head.

A ground shot from the Chinese right half was only just outside the posts.

The interval came with the Association leading by one goal.

The resumption saw high passes go astray and not a few miskicks with Mullane prominent in defence at a testing period.

Lau Mau cleverly beat Jones and centred but Mullane cleared and sent Bernie off to score with a beautiful cross ground shot which had the goalkeeper beaten all the way.

Though against the run of the play this was a good goal and would have discouraged any other team.

Blake sent a really fast ball across the goalmouth a moment later.

Strange was giving an amazingly indifferent performance as leader while Lee was beginning to come out in more dangerous phases.

The ball went to Podmore and hit him on the arm-pl. He had his back to the referee who, probably acting on the linesman's signal ordered a free-kick. A rapid exchange of passes saw Lee poised for a moment in front of goal with little more than a ball's width of room to shoot.

He shot and reduced the arrears with an untouchable effort.

Cord, the F.A. goalkeeper, makes a daring clearance over the heads of Mullane and a Chinese attacker during Saturday's Governor's Cup match on the Club ground. (Photo: Ming Yuen).

LOVELOCK'S FORMER RIVAL RETURNING

England Hoping to See J.F. Cornes on Track Again

London, May 1. A well-known athlete about whom more may be heard shortly is J. F. Cornes, the former Oxford University athletics president, who is coming to England for six months' leave from Nigeria, where he is Assistant District Commissioner.

Cornes ran the race of his life in the Olympic Games at Los Angeles in 1932, when he was beaten by two yards by the Italian, Luigi Beccali, whom he had previously beaten in the British championships in 1930. He has many other notable achievements to his credit. He excelled not only at middle distances, but also at the longer events, although he preferred the former. His stirring duels with his Oxford rival, J. E. Lovelock, will not easily be forgotten.

Rest.

CHINA DRAW LEVEL.

At 2-1 the Chinese found their most brilliant form.

Twice the left wing passed Robertson and the defence had a gruelling time. Then Strange was sent away. Had he passed a goal would probably have resulted but he was robbed.

A clever piece of footwork by Tso who was exhibiting magnificent ball control, and every trick in the game, took him past Morrison. He centred to Lee who beat two men and crashed home wide of Cord's outstretched hands to draw on level terms.

The same winger figured in a thrilling long struggle with the backs and forced them to concede a corner which Morrison headed clear.

BLAKE SCORES.

Bernie got away but was beaten by the keeper and then Blake received from across field and beating his man ran on to smash home a low hard drive which took the Association ahead again.

Blake was always in the picture in the second half and his sorties were well backed up by Ridley the two presenting as good a combination almost as the Gosanos.

Lee and the centre-forward imperilled the Association goal every time they had possession and Morrison, interposed his foot just in time to save another pile driver from Lee from 10 yards out.

A fast wing movement up field saw the ball swung in to

Return Badminton Match

The Jockey Club and Kowloon Cricket Club meet in their return badminton match to-morrow evening at Happy Valley.

The K.C.C., who were defeated on their own court a fortnight ago, are turning out the same team, although there will possibly be different pairing.

Collins will very likely be partnered by Guest, while Wig and Gray will return to their erstwhile combination and Kew will turn out with E. F. Fincher.

The Jockey Club may have to make one change, as W. C. Hung is uncertain whether he can turn out, but they are hoping to play the same team as that which beat the K.C.C. in the first encounter. Their team will probably be: F. H. Kwok and S. W. Liang, Sousa and Choy, W. C. Hung and E. Zimmermann.

Max Baer In Trouble With His Manager

WHILE CARNERA EXCHANGES VIEWS WITH AL CAPONE

Lake Tahoe, California. Dissension has broken out between the manager and the trainer of Max Baer, who is training here for his fight with Primo Carnera next June.

The dispute occurred over training rules. Mr. Anell Hoffman, manager, told Mr. Mike Cantwell, trainer, that the latter was allowing Max to much ruin. Mr. Cantwell "allowed" that such was not the case.

One of the points at issue was that Max was doing some long distance tuning in on Hollywood night clubs at 11 p.m. Training schedules call for him to be in bed by 9 p.m.

DODGED DAYLIGHT.

Baer's manager adheres to the opinion that, in view of the fact that his fighter has done all his training since last June in Hollywood night clubs as a master of ceremonies, helping to make a movie and generally dodging daylight, the middle of next June is not any too far away to get him into condition.

After the dispute Max and his trainer jaunted over to Reno to see some friends and to tell the night club owners that they will have to get along without him for a while, at any rate.

SHOCK FOR TAIKOO

LOSE LAWN BOWLS RECORD

CRAIGENGOWER KEEP IT UP

In only needed Saturday's results to convince that this summer is going to see one of the keenest contests for lawn bowls league honours in the history of the local game.

Craigengower "B", last year's second division champions defeated the powerful Police outfit in the senior section, whilst at the same time the "Craig" No. 1 team showed Kowloon Docks how to win, and the Kowloon Bowling Green went to Taikoo, upset a traditional record, and so maintained their leadership.

There should be half a dozen intensely interesting games later in the season when the Bowling Green meet the two Craigengower teams, and the C.C.C. outfits come into opposition.

The Recreio's "Humpty-Dumpty" experience at the hands of Civil Service was not altogether a surprise, although the margin of defeat was somewhat larger than the most pessimistic of the Portuguese supporters would have anticipated.

In the Junior Division we had the initial success of the Football Club, together with the first win this season of the Indian Recreation Club. The scorers took it out of the K.C.C., by no less than 13 shots.

But the I.R.C., laid in wait for none other than Craigengower (and on the latter's green at that) to win by 18 shots.

In accordance with expectations, the champions added two further points to the tally which is bringing them nearer retention of the honours, but the rejuvenated Yacht Club was not to be outdone, and took toll of the Police in no uncertain manner.

within the Federal prison here. Capone, standing by a window in the shoe shop, was pointed out to the world's heavyweight champion by one of the guards. Primo clasped his hands above his head in the fashion boxers follow in the ring and waved lustily.

Both grinned, but no words were spoken. Capone, apparently excited, from a window to another, keeping Primo in sight as long as possible. As the champion entered another building he turned about, waved his huge hands and smiled broadly.

INTEREST IN PRISON.

The Italian giant walked with a lumbering tread through the corridors, and evidenced a boyish interest in everything shown him by the prison guides.

The prisoners, not having been told of the visit of the champion, were taken by surprise at the sight of Primo. There was no demonstration, but many of the prisoners remarked with awe at his size, especially his feet.

"HI, FELLAS."

Carnera's only greeting was "Hi, fellas." Jake Abel, a former Atlanta boxer who assists prison authorities in staging the occasional boxing shows there, told the champion that Capone was a model prisoner. Carnera offered to give an exhibition but regulations forced prison officials to decline. However, Primo's promise to box at the prison on his next trip to Atlanta was accepted.

BOLTON PIPPED ON PROMOTION POST

AND BARNSELY LEAVE CHESTERFIELD WITH THE DIRTY END OF THE STICK

ENGLISH FOOTBALL SEASON ENDS

(By "The Pilgrim")

Chesterfield failed and Barnsley succeeded on Saturday in settling the promotion question to their own satisfaction on Saturday, the former failing by a point and goal average to secure top place.

Stockport maintained their unbeaten home record in the last game of the season to smash the hopes of the Salter Lane side whilst New Brighton, playing magnificent football were only beaten by the one goal of the match.

It was sufficient however to ensure Barnsley's promotion with Chesterfield sharing the points at Stockport.

Bolton, the team favoured to go with Grimsby into the First Division were beaten at Lincoln who ironically enough are due for relegation themselves.

Brentford won their match at Bury but so did Preston win at Southampton and to them goes the honour of runner-up and promotion.

PROMOTION AND RELEGATION.

For Promotion: Arsenal (champions) Grimsby (champions) Preston North End Norwich (champions) Barnsley (champions)

For Relegation: Newcastle United Sheffield United Lincoln City

To Apply For Re-election: Bournemouth Cardiff Rochdale

Preston owed their win to the oft beset goalkeeper, Holdhorpe who was magnificent while Palethorpe, the leader was off the field suffering from temporary concussion after contact with Hough. Palethorpe was back immediately and he went right away to score the winning goal.

There were 35,000 at Millwall, the biggest crowd of the day, to see Manchester United beat the Den inhabitants by 2-0. Manley's early goal encouraged the United and they pressed hotly. Copeland but the Millwall team stuck doggedly to the task and had an equal share of the rest of the game.

WINS TALLY-HO TOURNEY

London.

D. Prenn, the former German Davis Cup player, beat A. C. Steadman, the New Zealand Davis Cup player, by 6-1, 7-5, in the final of the men's singles in the Tally Ho! open lawn tennis tournament last month.

The first set was an easy affair for Prenn. The second was exhilarating, with rallies of exceptional brilliance, a dour fight for nearly every point, and shots that were worthy of a championship.

The New Zealander drove with a ferocity that has seldom been equalled in lawn tennis in the Midlands. His mistakes were tactical ones. Like C. E. Hare, he preferred to attack prenn's backhand, which has been made well-nigh perfect by continuous practice with the aid of a mechanical device invented by Rene Lacoste, which can be made to project balls out at any angle in any direction and at any pace.

But though Steadman attacked this stronger wing he kept such a perfect length and maintained such speed that he made Prenn go all out.

Steadman lobbed very well, and this shot won many points when Prenn went to the net.

Miss Yorke beat Mrs. Haylock in the final of the Women's Singles by 4-6, 6-1, 6-1. The winner, although she is considered better in doubles than in singles, played just the right type of game to overcome the super-steadiness of Mrs. Haylock. Miss Yorke used the oblique half-court shot that got Mrs. Haylock out of position, and then drove deep to the opposite side of the court, advanced to the net, and usually made her winning point with her third stroke of the rally.

Those tactics, if Miss Yorke can continue to control the ball as she did will take her a long way forward in tennis ranking.

The Hon. Secretary has arranged to lead the run on Sunday next, which will leave Headquarters (38 Hennessy Road) at 8.15 a.m. Kowloon cyclists should meet under the Captain at the Star Ferry, Kowloon at 7.55 a.m. The trip will be of about six hours duration and it is hoped that the greater number of the Island roads will be covered.

GLORIOUS DISPLAY ENDS LOCAL SOCCER SEASON

Lee who steadied himself and shot from 20 yards a hard rising ball which struck the underside of the bar and bounced in past Cord's clutching hands.

The teams were on level terms and at full time it was decided to play 10 minutes extra time each way.

It appeared that the Association defence would go to pieces under the swift attacks continually launched on them. A. V. Gosano had taken the centre forward position but he soon had to go back to fetch the ball up.

Strange was showing up better on the right wing but Cord in goal was doing acrobatics to keep his charge intact.

Blake ran away on his own but his shot from a difficult angle was held.

A. V. Gosano put in a wonderful header but the Chinese keeper was there with sure hands to clear.

Then the leader gave to Strange who centred for Ridley to gather, turn round and place a high, swerving ball well out of reach into the corner of the net.

This was the deciding goal of the match.

A. V. Gosano went into the pivot position and playing three backs and three halves the Association managed to win.

Gosano was as brilliant in defence as he was in attack and Mullane and Morrison—though the latter was perhaps more in the picture—played a perfect and understanding game.

Blake had more than justified his selection and the Gosano combination had shown that a little brushing up would see it as effective as ever.

The halves worked like trojans all through and though overshadowed at times by the scintillating cleverness of the Chinese forward line, they never gave up.

F.A.—Cord; Mullane, Morrison; Robertson, Fodmore, Jones; A. V. Gosano, B. Gosano, E. Strange, Ridley and Blake.

Chinese.—Wong Wing; Lau Mau, Lee Tin-sang; Lee Kwok-wai, Leung Wing-chui, K. C. Chen; Tsao Kwa-sheung, Tam Kong-pak, Fung King-cheung, Lee Wai-tong, and Ip Pak-wa.

At the conclusion of the game the Cup and miniatures for the winners were presented by Lady Southern. The League trophies were also presented as follows: First Division—Bordeners, Runners-up, St. Joseph's. Second Division—South China. Third Division—Lincolns.

STANDINGS OF THE CLUBS

BIG PROFITS & LOSSES OF LAST YEAR

FINANCIAL DEPRESSIONS MAY BE LIFTED THIS SUMMER

The homeside county cricket season promises to liberate our county clubs from the bog of continued financial loss.

The splendid weather of last summer played its part, and nearly every club showed a far more satisfactory turnover than was the case the previous year.

If ever opportunity stared cricket in the face, it will do so during the approaching season. The visit of the Australians will have a twofold effect upon the prospects of the county clubs. Already club membership and applications for season tickets have shown a decided increase. The game as a whole will attract the attention of a wider public.

The moral is plain: Don't send this eager public to sleep with featureless exhibitions of stonewalling but give them fair samples of the joy of cricket.

DERBYSHIRE'S 1930 LOSS.

Derbyshire showed a loss of £950 on last year's working, but they start the season with a balance in hand of £335, and officials are optimistic about the future.

A. W. Richardson has shaken off the illness which kept him out of the team frequently last season, and he is to continue in the captaincy.

ESSEX'S NEW POLICY.

Essex will embark with confidence on a season with some interesting changes. Their abandonment of Levton and following of Kent's example in distributing their fixtures throughout the county may prove to be a happy policy.

Already solid in batting strength, Essex should gain much by more successful bowling. K. Farnes and A. G. Dyer will be available for part of the season, and it is hoped that more will be seen of H. T. O. Smith and H. D. Read—the latter a very fast bowler who is much better than his last year's figures might suggest. T. N. Pearce and D. R. Wilcox will again be joint captains. Last year's record playing season produced a profit of £172.

GLAMORGAN PROFIT.

Glamorgan's financial position has never been better. Last season the club made a profit of £600, and as the result of a public appeal the total debt has been reduced from £4,000 to approximately

£1,000. For the first time county cricket in South Wales is paying its way.

M. J. Turnbull will carry out the dual duty of captain and secretary.

GLOUCESTERSHIRE'S LOSS.

Gloucestershire lost £269 compared with £1,432 in 1932. There was an increase in membership and gate receipts, and the committee explain that the loss was almost entirely due to the rental of £500 for the county ground, which has now become the property of the club.

B. H. Lyon will again be captain. Matthews, fast, and Cranfield, slow, are two new bowlers for whom places may be found during the season.

HAMPSHIRE'S LOSSES.

"We cannot go on as we are," declared Sir Russell Bencraft, chairman of the committee, "because there is a loss every year." There is a heavy overdraft at the moment and reduced gate receipts. The club has lost 1,000 members since 1926, the present membership being 1981. The loss on last season was £251.

The captaincy will be taken over by Geoffrey Lowndes, who succeeds Lord Tennyson.

KENT'S REDUCED PROFIT.

Kent finished last season with a profit of £257, as against £1,229 the previous year, but special donations and compensation accounted for £972 of the difference. A gratuity of £500 was made to Harding on his retirement.

A. P. F. Chapman will again lead the team, with B. H. Valentine, who did so well with the M.C.C. in India, as vice-captain. C. S. Marriott will be available during the holidays.

LANCASHIRE'S £2400 PROFIT.

Lancashire will have much the same side as last season. They are still searching for a fast bowler to fill Macdonald's place.

The county turned an adverse balance of over £3,000 into a profit of £2,400 last year.

P. T. Eckersley will be available once more as captain.

DEFICIT HALVED.

Leicestershire began this year with a deficit of £2,500, as against a deficit at the beginning of 1933 of £5,192. A special effort is being made to obtain 1,000 more members, and the prospects are fairly encouraging.

Arthur Hazlerigg, a former captain of Cambridge University, and son of Sir A. Hazlerigg, who was captain of Leicestershire about twenty years ago, will lead the team this season.

MIDDLESEX FINDING TALENT.

Middlesex have put in train a systematic scheme for unearthing players of talent throughout the county, and a Young Players Subcommittee has been appointed to carry out the search.

It is doubtful if Durston will play regularly for the county this season. It is more probable that his gifts will be principally directed to the coaching of younger players.

J. Smith, the Wiltshire fast bowler and big hitter, will be eligible to play for Middlesex this year, and P. F. Judge, the young

CONTRACT BRIDGE

By W. E. McKenney

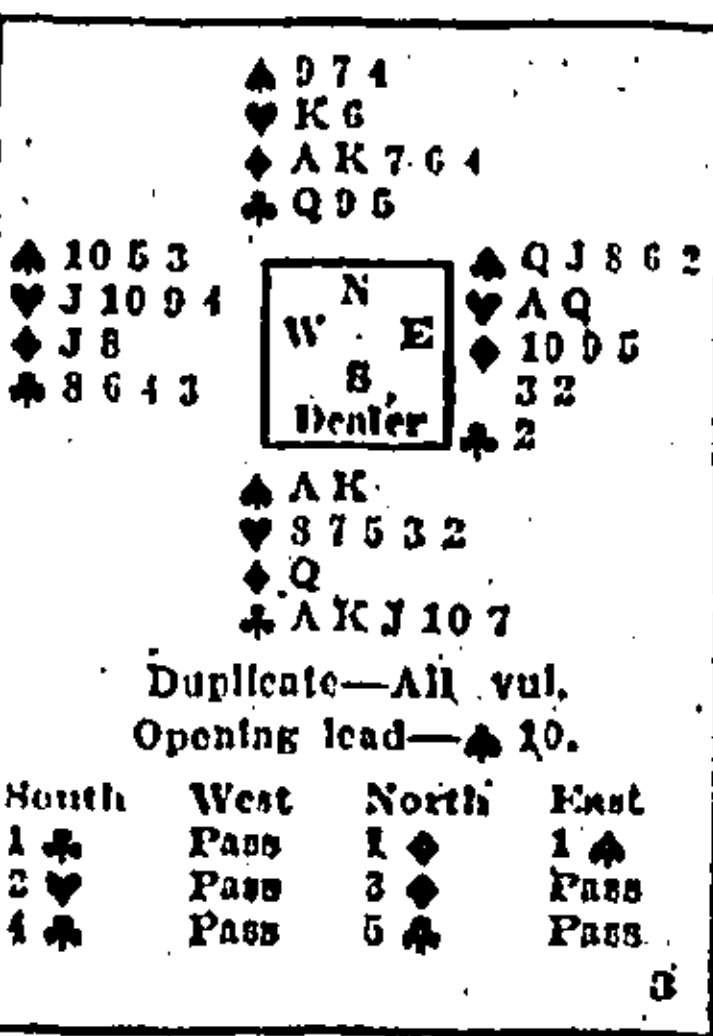

Solution to Previous Contract Problem.

When you hold a hand containing two five-card suits, you naturally want to show both of those suits. But in to-day's hand we have a weak five-card major suit, and a minor suit containing 100 honours.

A weak five-card suit is no better than a good four-card suit—in other words, one of those small cards will have to be wasted in establishing the suit.

Of course it would be good for ruffing purposes, but it really has no more value than a four-card suit headed by ace-queen.

I believe South's original bid of one club is correct. North makes a one-over-one force of one diamond.

mond. East bids one spade. South now shows the heart suit by bidding two hearts.

North's bid of three diamonds shows a five-card diamond suit and a hand containing strength. After South's bid of four clubs, North is justified in going to five clubs.

It so happens that, if West opens the Jack of diamonds, the contract can be defeated. However, the natural opening is the ten of spades—the top of his partner's suit—which South wins with the ace.

South is confronted with a problem—shall he try to get rid of two hearts on the ace and king of diamonds and ruff one, or should the heart suit be established?

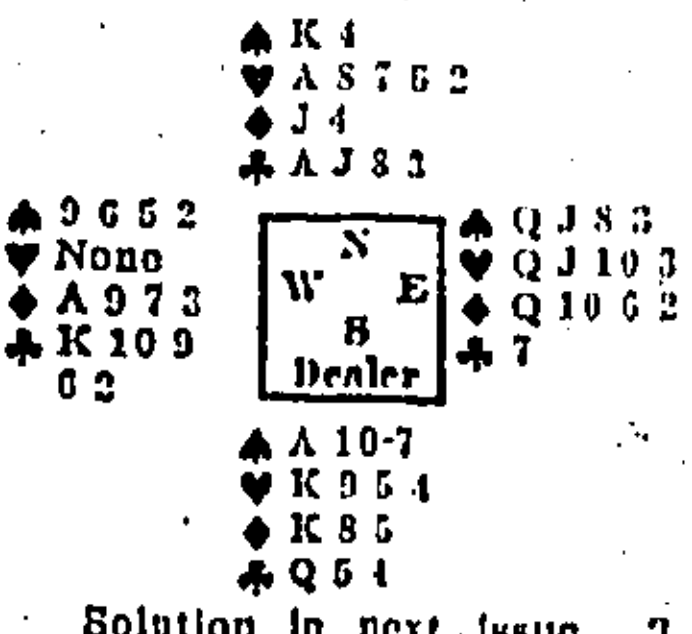

With a singleton and a doubleton in his hand, he should not trump to the diamond suit breaking four-three. He must play hearts eventually, so his best plan is to try to establish the fifth heart rather than depend upon two diamonds on the ace and king of diamonds.

His next play should be a small heart up to dummy's king. Of course East will win with the ace and return the queen of spades, which South will win with the king. South immediately returns a heart, East winning with the queen.

The Jack of spades is played. South trumps with the seven of clubs and then leads another heart, ruffing in dummy with the nine of clubs. A small diamond is

CINEMA SCREENINGS

NOTES SUPPLIED BY THE THEATRES

Ramon Novarro and Jeanette MacDonald, two of the screen's foremost romantic singing stars, are united at the Queen's and Alhambra Theatres in one of the really memorable photo-plays of the year. It is "The Cat and the Fiddle," which, as you probably surmise, has nothing whatever to do with cats and very little with fiddles. It is a high romance flavoured with heart-thumping music, recent years. The picture is memorable for several reasons. First, perhaps, because it gives romantic Ramon Novarro an opportunity to really make love in that whimsically delightful way that every woman adores. Second, because it gives Jeanette MacDonald her first really romantic role, the was interesting and amusing in her love scenes with Chelvalier in recent films, but not until now has she been given an opportunity to demonstrate her amazing emotional depth. And third—and perhaps it should have been first—because "The Cat and the Fiddle" embodies such glorious harmony that, when Ramon and Jeanette sing it, it will linger in memory for many a day. The music is interpolated into the production in such deft fashion that one gives the feeling it is "motivated," that it advances the plot, that it is a reason for every song, although such music, frankly, would be welcome without any more reason than its own beauty. Such songs as "The Night Was Warm for Love," "She Didn't Say Yes," "One Moment Alone," "A New Love Is Old," "The Love Parade," "Try to Forget," are heard during the picture. Most of them are sung by Novarro and Miss MacDonald, but Vivienne Segal's lovely soprano voice is a distinct hit, as is the voice of a newcomer, Earl Oxford.

"To-morrow at Seven" Henry Stephenson is one actor who has the depression whipped up to a frazzle, for he is as popular in London and New York as in Hollywood, and his veteran ability is always in demand in these three centres. Currently, he lends his acting in a featured role with Chester Morris and Vivienne Osborne in "To-morrow at Seven," coming to the King's Theatre. Born in Granada, British West Indies, he remained on the London stage until 1909, when he came to New York to play in "A Message from Mars." For quarter of a century, he played leading character roles in the stage. His latest appearance in New York was in "Cynara." The talking pictures first won him over when he was offered a prominent part in "Redheaded Woman" with Jean Harlow. Later, he played in "The Animal Kingdom" and "A Bill of Divorcement," scoring acclaim for his characterizations. In "To-morrow at Seven" he enacts the exciting role of a millionaire merchant who expends a fortune to track down a fiendish slayer who sends his warnings of death in a jigsaw puzzle. Vivienne Osborne and Chester Morris head the cast, which includes John Mellus Keefe, Grant Mitchell, Allen Jenkins, Frank McHugh and Charles Middleton.

"The Women in His Life" Out of the following pages of metropolitan newspapers a dramatic story has been rescued for the screen that promises to be one of the fastest, exciting and thrill-packed chronicles of modern life. The story is transcribed into a motion picture. The picture is "The Women in His Life," which is scheduled as the next change at the Queen's Theatre. In reality, it is a composite of many true stories of New York's rapid-pulse life, for it is a well-seasoned mixture of many sense-head yarns that have been screened from the front pages of the Big Town's newspapers in tall black letters. It is the story of sensational trials; of life behind the scenes of the courtrooms and attorneys' offices; of a spectacular trial lawyer who always wins the cases for his clients, be they guilty or innocent, but who lets a woman of his past wreck his future. Otto Kruger, the lawyer who rises to great heights in the legal profession, only to be beset by disgrace, is a spectacular trial lawyer who always wins the cases for his clients, be they guilty or innocent, but who lets a woman of his past wreck his future.

Right on the heels of her triumph in "Morning Glory" comes Katharine Hepburn, the star of RKO-Radio Pictures, for she is giving three cheers for Katharine all along the cheer section of motion pictures, in a role as made to order for her as Jo in "Little Women" was made to order for the author, Louisa M. Alcott, and Jo was taken from Alcott's own life. The film is now showing at the King's Theatre. Young and old will delight, it is said, in the remarkable performance Katharine gives as the girl who revels in affection but shies at marriage. The RKO-Radio star can quickly shift her histrionic gears from laughs to tears and back again. And she looks the part of Jo as well as being able to act it with the understanding that has made the young fiction heroine beloved among all heart is next played and ruffed with the queen of clubs. Now the declarer does not even need to try for a discard on the ace of diamonds, but immediately should return a small club to his own hand, cash his three good club tricks, and win the last trick with the eight of hearts.

There were over 130 members and friends present including Professor Mackenzie, M.Sc., Ph.D., Professor R. Robertson, M.A., and Mrs. Robertson, M.A., Mr. G. B. Birch, M.A., Mr. R. A. Campbell, M.A., (President of the Arts Association), Mr. A. B. Reynolds, B.A. (vice-president), Mr. Ken Yuet-keung (chairman) and Mr. Lo Kwai-seong, (Hon. Secretary).

SUMMER DELIGHTS.

SODA FOUNTAIN IN GLOUCESTER LOUNGE

An event of more than usual interest is the opening to-day of a modern soda fountain and Ice Cream Service in the ground floor, Gloucester Lounge. This installation is described as the most up-to-date of its kind, being especially constructed for perfect hygienic dispensing of ice cream and soda fountain specialties, in all varieties.

With its usual policy of giving patrons always of the best, the Gloucester management advise that only Dairy Farm ice cream, milk, cream and general products of that well-known firm will be used in the making of all the many toothsome specialties contained in the very attractive Soda Fountain and Ice Cream menu. Commencing also to-day in the Lounge, Gloucester patrons may partake of a delectable variety of cold tiffin dishes, served in an atmosphere of attractive coolness that will make the prospect of eating during the summer days a pleasure.

Both these new additions should, if that is possible, add to the popularity of this pleasant rendezvous.

URGENT APPEAL FOR FUNDS

The Women's Auxiliary of the Hongkong Society for the Protection of Children has issued the following appeal:

Funds are urgently needed to enable the Society to continue its work. The excess of expenditure over income during the first five months of the present financial year was $4,223.31. During this period (November 1st to March 31st) the Society has dealt with 364 new cases.

FINE WORK. Its work is almost entirely among the poorest of the poor and it has, during the past five months, obtained medical treatment in 172 new cases which have come under the care of its branches, and provided food in 259 fresh cases of sick or starving children.

Amongst other activities the Society is contributing towards the maintenance of fourteen destitute children whom it has placed in institutions, and has obtained hawker's licences and stock for fifteen parents who could not otherwise be able to make a living.

One of the Society's four inspectors attends as a nurse at the Children's Clinic at Sham-Shui-Po, towards the support of which the Society regularly contributes medical supplies and dietary articles. From its funds, the Society makes an annual grant to the Salvation Army Home at Matsuwei.

Donations will be gratefully received by the two Hon. Treasurers—Mrs. L. W. Amps, 517, The Peak; and Mrs. Y. K. Chow, c/o 'Sir Shouson Chow, Chinese Merchants' Club, China Building, Queen's Road.

NAZI ACTIVITY IN SAAR

THOUSANDS CROSS THE BORDER

SPEECH BY DR. GOEBBELS

(Special to "Telegraph")

(By Telegraph. Copyright. Telegraphs May 6, 1934. 2.11 a.m.)

Paris, May 6. German activity directed towards ensuring a favourable pro-German vote during the Saar plebiscite is increasing.

It is reported that eighty thousand people crossed the Saar frontier into Germany this afternoon to demonstrate their intention to vote for the return of the Saar to Germany next year, when the Saar plebiscite is due to be held.

Herr Goebbels, the German Minister of Propaganda, addressing the crowd at Zweibrücken, Bavaria, declared, amid cheers, that the Saar would remain German despite terrorism and trickery.

At the end of his speech a blonde girl presented Herr Goebbels with a bowl of earth from the Saar.

FRENCH VERSION.

According to the version of Goebbels' speech which is published in Paris, the German Minister declared that Germany could now resist France and the League of Nations come what might. He denounced the German

In a later interview, Dame Sybil Thorndike said she was very, very happy about her son's romance which came as no surprise to her or her husband.

"It has always been my ambition to go to China—I have always longed to see the Great Wall! Now I shall certainly do everything I can to arrange it. Anyway, I am determined to be there for the wedding, and so is Mr. Casson."

"They are very young yet, and I expect they will wait at least a year before they get married."

OUT OF COURT'S JURISDICTION PUISNE JUDGE RULES CASE OUT

A case was ruled out at the Summary Court by Mr. Justice Jacks this morning, on the ground that it was out of the jurisdiction of the Court.

Wong Tin, merchants of 515, Queen's Road West, claimed from Matsunaga Tomio, of 11, D'Aguilar Street, the sum of $680, money lent between January 26 and February 19. Alternatively the money was claimed as having been paid to Matsunaga & Co., at the oral request of Tomio on or about January 26.

In another writ Ling Hol Fishing Company, of 515, Queen's Road West, claimed $1,000 from the same defendants in respect of four fishing junks which they had paid for but had not received.

Mr. F. H. Losoby represented plaintiffs and Mr. F. E. Nash appeared for defendants. Mr. Losoby said that both the causes arose out of one transaction. Tomio said he had four junks at Formosa which he was willing to sell cheaply. He said he would take $1,000 for them and would receive twenty per cent. of the profits made out of the transaction by plaintiffs. This was agreed and they all decided to go to Formosa to see the junks. Defendant had no money to go with, and he borrowed $680 from a partner of the firm. Subsequently the junks were seen and the money paid. The junks did not arrive at Hongkong, however, and the plaintiffs were losing four junks and $1,080.

Mr. Nash objected that his friend could not make two cases out of one issue and quoted authority to this effect. There was a defence, he added. After further argument, his Lordship expressed his agreement with Mr. Nash and dismissed the cases as being out of the jurisdiction of the Summary Court.
